Varner's Election Official; Wins by 166-Vote Margin

Homer Varner will be the next supervisor from the fourth district of Riverside county, it was definitely and finally revealed Wednesday when County Clerk G. A. Pequegnat announced the official results of the November 7 general election.

The final vote, including absentee ballots and all cast at the polling places three weeks ago was:

VARNER ..... 6,303
HESTER ..... 6,137

VARNER'S MAJORITY over his opponent was 166. He gained seven votes in the official count and absentee ballot canvass over the unofficial result listed on the day after the election.

Pequegnat revealed that 56,427 persons went to the polls in the county or cast absentee ballots. This was the heaviest vote ever cast in the county but not the greatest in per centage. The latter figure was 71 per cent with 78,686 voters listed on the Great Register.

IN THE MEANTIME, rumors began to fly at the court house that Varner backers had placed posters urging his election to near polling places in Indio and Banning.

Pequegnat and District Attorney W. O. Mackey said they had heard the rumors but had received no official complaints.

Pequegnat said that if the rumors were true, the election would not be accepted but that violators of the election law would be prosecuted.

This Side Of the Sun

By Phat

(EDITOR'S NOTE — As last week's verse, (Oooh, what I said!) was 12 lines long and since the customary atrocities which start this piece are from but four to eight lines, it was thought best to omit a similar attempt this week. People have their limits, you know.)

The above was written after four false starts on what sometimes is a reasonable facsimile of a rhyme.)

FIRST, would like to report the solving of a puzzle this week. Ever since automobile manufacturers abandoned running boards or, rather, designed their cars so that the running boards disappeared when the doors closed, I have wondered where the motorbike officers put their foot when writing out a ticket.

W. E. Hockenbary of the local P.D. provided the answer the other day... when writing out a ticket for an over-parker, he puts his foot on the bumper of that three-wheeler he rides about town. ... And speaking of police, Chief A. G. Kettmann was evidently a good Boy Scout in his younger day. ... He left a group engaged in interested discussion the other day to personally escort an elderly woman across the Drive. ... Not only that, he opened the door of her automobile and ushered her in.

BOB BENNETT is very meticulous in explaining that "The Rec." new name for the Youth Center, is short for "The Recreation." ... I've got other ideas. ... Can remember when the kids used to gather at the house when the boys were young. ... And the place was The Wreck afterwards. ... Youngsters make me think of Christmas and it's about time to persuade Mrs. G. to take me to the department. See THIS SIDE, Page 16.

VILLAGERS LEARN WHY SCHOOL BUSES SAFEST

Village organizations are getting a first-hand idea of why the Palm Springs school transportation system is setting such an excellent safety record.

They are riding the school buses themselves—with the kids—and watching the Junior Safety Patrol in action. The first trip was sort of an official one with Dr. A. G. Hoff, superintendent of Palm Springs Unified School district, Miss Katherine Finch, elementary school chief, Herbert Samson and Toby Curtis, who annually present a safety trophy, taking the ride.

LAST WEEK first civic club to accept the invitation to ride was the Palm Springs Lions club. Other civic groups will follow on successive Fridays.

Making the trip for the Lions were Charles McGann, president, Lloyd Mason Smith, George Minton, city engineer, Dr. O. B. McRory and Dr. Robert C. Morrey.

Pequegnat revealed that 56,427 persons went to the polls in the county or cast absentee ballots. This was the heaviest vote ever cast in the county but not the greatest in per centage. The latter figure was 71 per cent with 78,686 voters listed on the Great Register.

IN THE MEANTIME, rumors began to fly at the court house that Varner backers had placed posters urging his election to near polling places in Indio and Banning.

Pequegnat and District Attorney W. O. Mackey said they had heard the rumors but had received no official complaints.

Pequegnat said that if the rumors were true, the election would not be accepted but that violators of the election law would be prosecuted.

Building Record To Hit Highest Mark Since '46

Building inspector P. M. Swart announced this week that he expects city building this year will top the $4,000,000 mark for the first time since the three-year boom following World War II. The 1950 total through November is $3,893,711.

November, like October, was another booming month for Swart's office. Building permits totaling $359,100 were issued. Included in the total were 17 new homes worth $272,400; 15 swimming pools valued at $54,000; 14 home alterations and additions, $24,900; one commercial structure, an addition to Sun Ray Lodge, valued at $5,500, and commercial alterations amounting to $2,900.

In all 49 permits were issued for November as compared with 38 in November, 1949. 1950 is well ahead of last year at the corresponding time. Last year, as of December 1, total building was $2,124,205.

Last month permits were issued for ten new homes, three commercial buildings and ten pools. The total October value was $471,085 with $200,000 of the sum in the proposed safety way store on South Palm Canyon drive.

December promises to be another excellent building month, Swart said and as only approximately $100,000 is needed to top the $4,000,000 mark, the building inspector felt sure the record would be reached.

Plans Speeded for Third Annual Mexican Festival

The Third Annual Mexican Fiesta will be a "bang-up" fun fest which will appeal to the whole family, said Mrs. Anna Gonzalez, Fiesta president, this week. The Fiesta, to be held in the Plaza, Dec. 10, is sponsored by Our Lady of Guadalupe church. The evening party will include gay Mexican music and folk dancing in the streets of the Plaza. The area will be transformed into an olden day Mexican public square. "We will try to make the Plaza look like Mexico as it once was," said the Rev. Raymond Klumbis of Our Lady of Guadalupe. "It will look like another Olvera street—for which Los Angeles is famous."

George Bond, superintendent of the school transportation system who, with local police, worked out the safety patrol plan, described it as they rolled along with lunch buckets and books.

JUNIOR SAFETY PATROL members did their stuff and the Lions learned why the system has had no accidents or tragedies, despite the antics of some motorists.

Howard Poe of the police department who has been assigned to the school safety work for the past few seasons, also rode along.

There will be a party for the school safety patrol tomorrow night at 7 o'clock at Cahulla school with local merchants and Lions providing the refreshments and Jimmy Hume in charge of the entertainment.

The Curtis-Samson safety award will be presented to Joel Butler, a captain on the patrol, by Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann.

IN JULY, SIXTEEN structures were posted as being unfit for human habitation and occupants notified of impending action to eradicate the hazard. In August, occupants of ten of the posted dwellings were ordered to evacuate at once.

One arrest and conviction followed refusal to heed the summons. Occupants of the dwellings were given 30 days to remove all salvagable material and all claim to the structures themselves reverted to the Indian tribe.

C. H. PERDEW, Indian agent, then gave permission to the city and county to demolish the unfit buildings in any manner they thought best.

After inspection of the seven places, it was decided that burning would be the quickest method in every case except one where flames might be dangerous. This one was torn down, the remainder razed by fire.

Present to supervise the demolishing process were Fire Chief Bill Leonasio, Building Inspector P. M. Swart, Fire Marshal Warren Heath, Firemen Leo Wilkes, Harold Smith, John Singer, Edwin Forbark, Glenn Smith and several police officers.

Another highway 111 curve, being a sharp turn, will be widened. See PLANNERS, Page 13.

INDIANS AND GARDEN GROVE MEET HERE TONIGHT IN CIF PLAY OFF

Local boosters are expected to turn out in strength tonight when the Palm Springs Indians host Garden Grove high at 7:30 in the second round of the CIF southern group championship playoffs.

Coach Clare Ballagh's fiery Redskins step into class this time out. Garden Grove, Orange County League champs, is a 24-20 victor over Tri-County League champion Bonita high in the first round playoffs.

BALLAGH, assistant coach Scott Thompson and a group of Palm Springs preppers scouted Garden Grove as the Argonauts stormed from behind in the final two minutes of play to post the win.

A flip of the coin decided the site for the second round meeting. Tonight's contest will be the first CIF game played in Riverside county since mighty Point Loma ransacked the San Jacinto Tigers in the second round meeting last fall at San Jacinto.

PALM SPRINGS will go against a short punt formation for the second time this season. The Indians edged Hemet 7 to 0, with the Bulldogs flashing a short punt after a switch-over from the single.

Sparkplugs on offense for the Orange county preps are a pair of touchdown twins, Jack Elder and Ray Ramirez. Jointly they tallied 10 touchdowns and seven conversions for 67 of their team's 110 points in five conference games. Ramirez also doubles as the team's best passer.

7 Unfit Dwellings Destroyed Chamber Denies Discrimination

First Action Taken by City On Clean Up

Houses Condemned After State Survey, Razed by Officials

Seven flimsy dwellings on the reservation, condemned earlier this year as "unfit for human habitation" were razed Sunday by city officials under jurisdiction granted in a recently enacted federal law.

One of the houses was demolished and six destroyed by fire.

The action followed long efforts by city and county to rid the area of buildings which constituted a menace to safety and health.

BALKED BY LAW before congress adopted legislation giving them jurisdiction on the reservation, health and building officials of the city and county had long sought to eliminate the hazards. After being granted necessary powers, first inspection of the situation was made by the state division of housing in June.

At that time, 30 dwellings were found in violation of health and safety regulations. In many no toilets, sinks or piping had been installed. Walls, windows, doors, screens, partitions and floors were in violation of the building code.

"PLEASE DON'T hold up your mailings until these dates, however," the postmaster pleaded. "Mail packages, especially, as soon as you have them ready."

To meet the peak Yuletide rush, the postoffice has already begun training extra mail clerks and carriers, setting up new sorting tables, providing reserve mail sacks, and the like. Even the postoffice pens are getting new points.

"Please stop in at once and purchase the stamps you'll need for your Christmas cards and letters," Gorham asked. He urged purchase of three-cent stamps for mailing greetings in first-class. Cards may then be sealed, contain written messages and can be forwarded or returned without additional charge.

"Don't sell your postoffice short. Be sure to buy your stamps locally," he added.

The postmaster also suggested: "Get a few air mail and special delivery stamps, too, for speeding your greetings to friends you may remember at the last minute."

"Buying stamps is one part of your Christmas shopping that can be completed really early. It will save you valuable time in December, when the holiday rush begins and the postoffice lines are long."

The postmaster also advised early purchase of heavy fiberboard, sturdy wrapping paper, strong cord, and printed Fourth Class labels for parcel post. He pointed out that fragile items must be individually cushioned.

It's Official, Christmas Season Here

Postmaster Gorham Sounds His Annual Mail Early Appeal

Postmaster R. M. Gorham made it official today—the Christmas season is here.

He sounded his annual appeal for correct addressing and early mailing of Christmas packages. The postmaster predicted that this year's flood of Christmas mail will break 1949's high, when a record of 570,000 pieces of holiday mail were cancelled locally in December.

"HANDLING THIS huge volume of Christmas mail will tax postoffice facilities to the limit," he said. "But we will get everything delivered by Christmas if we receive the full cooperation of the public."

Christmas packages for distant points should be mailed by December 15, the postmaster advised. Christmas gifts for nearby points should be at the parcel post windows by December 9.

Christmas cards destined for out-of-the-state should be deposited by December 15, and cards for local delivery at least a week before the holiday.

The Chamber of Commerce recently embarked upon a considerably expanded advertising and publicity campaign, with the objective of bringing new visitors to Palm Springs. In addition, with existence of the present national and international emergency there is bound to be travel restriction, whether it be mental on the part of the travelling public or restriction by legislation. Foreign travel will unquestionably be sharply curtailed and domestic travel will probably likewise be affected. The result is that many persons who visited Palm Springs in past years (but who have been travelling since to Hawaii, South America, Europe, the Orient, etc.) will again be interested in returning to Palm Springs. However, since their last visits the number of accommodations in Palm Springs have doubled or perhaps even tripled. They will be faced with the same situation as the person who may be interested in visiting Palm Springs for the first time, which is: Former visitors will naturally contact those hotels and apartments known to them several years ago. These establishments will naturally be the first to fill, and yet there will be an undiminished number of accommodations available which are unknown to these former visitors. City records show there are some 200 or slightly more hotels and apartments in Palm Springs. This is a formidable list to present a person unfamiliar with Palm Springs and ask him to make a selection.

IT IS THE DESIRE of the Chamber of Commerce that not one single potential visitor be deterred from visiting Palm Springs—that every facility be placed at his disposal to quickly and efficiently find exactly the accommodation he desires. To achieve this objective which is definitely in the interests of Palm Springs as a whole, there must be some central service available where the potential visitor (particularly the new guest and those who are returning after several years absence) can secure the assistance necessary to bring him to Palm

Benny Tickets In Agency Hands

"So far as I know, all tickets for the Jack Benny broadcast Dec. 10 are in possession of the show's publicity department and will be distributed by that agency," said Charlie St. George, American Legion official, this week. The broadcast will originate from Wars Memorial hall.

Irving Fein of Benny's publicity department said that the December show is probably the first of several that will be staged here.

Many persons in the Village have contacted the Legion hall. The Desert Sun and the radio station in search of tickets for the broadcast. The show will begin at 4 p.m.

Business Women Launch Christmas Stocking Plans

Palm Springs Business Women's club this year is again sponsoring the Community Christmas Tree in their effort to make Christmas happier for the children of the desert area.

School children in the first four grades will be presented "Goody Stockings" on the celebrated birthday.

The following letter, addressed to the women's club the week after last Christmas, is indicative of the joy that accompanies the stockings:

Dear Friends:—I appreciate what you did for us on Christ-

C. of C. Directors Outline Reservation Bureau Policy In Answer to Bias Claims

In the interest of the general public as a whole—the hotel and apartment operators, the retail merchants and others in Palm Springs, Keith Herbert, president of the Chamber of Commerce, submitted the following outline of the Chamber's recently inaugurated reservation service. This statement was submitted in behalf of the board of directors.

The board of directors also pointed out that it was only after long and due deliberation, and after long and increasing demand by the traveling public and by travel agents for such a centralized service that the Chamber adopted and inaugurated the reservation program.

The statement, in full, follows:

Many hotel and apartment owners, managers and operators were unable to attend the meeting held last Monday evening, November 26th, in the El Paseo Theatre, for presentation and discussion of the Reservation Service inaugurated by the Chamber of Commerce on October 15, 1950.

FOR ANY INDIVIDUAL or for the community as a whole to reach just and reasonable decisions it is necessary that complete facts, pro and con, be presented for consideration and appraisal. It is with the hope that we can reach those who were unable to attend the meeting and therefore without factual data concerning the inauguration and operation of the Reservation Service—that we are outlining briefly hereunder the background for establishing the service, the need therefor, the actual record of six weeks operation, and the general reception to date by Travel Agents and visitors.

The Chamber of Commerce recently embarked upon a considerably expanded advertising and publicity campaign, with the objective of bringing new visitors to Palm Springs. In addition, with existence of the present national and international emergency there is bound to be travel restriction, whether it be mental on the part of the travelling public or restriction by legislation. ## Hotel Men's Session Told Bias Exists

Heated Discussion Marks Meeting at Which Charge Made

Only a strong hand on the president's gavel prevented an evening of bitter personal exchanges between speakers pro and con when members of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment association undertook an examination of the Chamber of Commerce' new tourist reservation bureau at Monday night's association meeting in El Paseo theatre.

The two sides of the argument appeared to be represented by a roughly equal number of advocates, although such verbal pyrotechnics as exploded seemed to rise from the ranks of hotel operators who vehemently resent entrance of the civic institution into any private business, or otherwise interposing the publicly financed civic organization between hotels and their patrons.

HOTEL ASSOCIATION President Jere Weber pronounced it the "hottest meeting" in the three year history of the hotel group, and impartially commended speakers for their willingness to "stand up in meeting and let the town know how you feel."

Only when personalities, or challenges of veracity appeared imminent or were uttered, did Weber exercise the cooling off effect. He introduced a new and effective technique of gavel handling to the Village, when for the first time arguers found themselves drowned out by the vigorous rapping of Weber's fountain pen applied directly with ear crashing results, to the loud speaker system microphone. The protagonists could only gulp and subside.

Chest Now Only Third Full, Report

With the house-to-house canvass entering its final week, Palm Springs Community Chest workers have collected $18,500 to date. The Chest goal is $38,000.

Mrs. Melba Bennett, publicity chairman for the Chest, urged everyone to give something. "If you can't afford a dollar give 25 cents. Palm Springs, of all places, shouldn't have trouble meeting its quota. Here everyone should give just to show their appreciation for living here in all this sunshine."

The PUBLISHER'S Corner

by OLIVER B. JAYNES

FAIR AND WARMER—While most of the United States was being battered by the elements the past week, Palm Springs residents and vacationists were enjoying ideal weather—warm, sunny days and clear, cool nights. The eastern half of the country was paralyzed with one of the worst blizzards on record; Floridians shivered as they crawled out of bed in the mornings and the growers down that way were worried about their crops; the Northwest was soaking up the usual amount of rainfall, and the Los Angeles area was beset with an unusually heavy fog and the usual eye-smarting fumes. All the while the desert area dwellers were going around in shorts, sun-tanning in flower-fringed patios, splashing about in swimming pools, horseback riding in the moonlight and enjoying the inspiring mountain vistas.

If more people only knew how delightful the weather is on the desert right now, our hotels would be filled to capacity. Of course, a lot of people want to stay in their homes over the Christmas holidays no matter how bad the weather is—but there are thousands of others who would come sooner if they realized how perfect the weather is here. The limited advertising fund of the city has to cover so many promotional activities that there's not much for the purchase of space in newspapers and magazines—yet such a program is needed badly for fall and spring seasons when the weather is nice but there are not many visitors here except for week-ends. It will take a lot of advertising and publicity to spread "the season" here over an eight-month period—October thru May. We all know that October-November and April-May are the most delightful months of all—we must "sell" them to the rest of the country. December thru March will always be good.

Auto Wreck Fatal to One, Another Hurt

New Residents Here
Highway Intersection

Archie Carroll, 23, a resident of Palm Springs for the past four months, was fatally injured Sunday morning when the automobile he was riding in overturned and burned near the intersection of Highway 111 and the Pines to Palms highway.

Paul Davis, 21, who was at the wheel of the car at the time of the accident, is being treated at Riverside county hospital for severe injuries. Davis also recently arrived in Palm Springs.

CARROLL DIED while en route from the crash scene to the hospital.

Hero of the wreck was Elmer Peacock of Palm Desert who heard the crash and rushed to the scene in his pajamas. He managed to extricate Davis but was balked by the flames in an attempt to save Carroll.

Investigation revealed that the driver, Davis, apparently fell asleep at the wheel. The accident occurred at 4 a.m. The car swerved off the road and crashed into a tree, burst into flames and was demolished. Deputy Coroner Paul Miller investigated the mishap.

CARROLL, a local trailer camp laborer, was a veteran of World War II. He was a native of Magnolia, Ark. where the body has been shipped for burial.

He is survived by a wife, Minnie Ruth, in the east with a brother, T. C. Carroll, here. Other relatives live in Arkansas.

Hargis Sounds Call to Village Air Reservists

"Members of the Air Force Reserve meet Monday evenings at eight o'clock at Palm Springs high school. All reservists in this area are urged to attend, even though they are assigned to other units. Attendance at these meetings may be credited toward accumulating points for retirement," said Major Robert S. Hargis yesterday. "You'll meet old buddies and make new friends. Here is an opportunity to associate with successful men in our community."

"As a member of the Reserve you'll enjoy the added prestige in this community. Everyone respects vision, initiative, and responsibility. Everyone honors service to the community and nation. As a Reservist attending these meetings you clearly demonstrate these qualities. As a Reservist you help keep our nation prepared for any emergency."

At next Monday's meeting at 8 p.m. Capt. Elizabeth N. Pukas will speak on Civilian Defense.

Choosey Thief Takes Cad Hubs

A discriminating thief or thieves, obviously preferring Cadillacs, worked over a pair of the fish-tailed vehicles Friday night and removed hub caps to the tune of $184 worth.

Harry Reid, 1423 San Lorenzo road, reported two of his caps stolen while his car was in the parking lot at Indian avenue and Andreas road.

A. T. Procopio, of San Diego, told police his 1950 Cad. was cleaned of caps while he was staying at the Carmelita Hotel.

And Now We Have Flying Cigars

Something new has been added. Flying saucers have elongated themselves so now there are reports of flying cigars in the skies over the desert.

Five people so far have reported the odd cigar-shaped objects flying over the little San Bernardino to the north of the Village last week.

The objects were silver colored according to Mrs. Margaret Kelley and her daughter, Mary West, of San Bernardino. Previously three other persons had reported them.

Shades of Jesse James! Train Robbery Near Village

There was a train robbery a few miles from Palm Springs the other night. No foolin'. It WAS a train robbery.

The news was flashed out via radio, and in a nounce, rumors were flying thick and fast. Police of two counties girded themselves for a renewal of the Jesse James days and by the time the story was an hour old, the masked and armed bandits had made off with several thousand dollars.

Then the story came out. It WAS a train robbery—that is, a robbery on a train, a freight train at that.

Harry Dull, 61, footloose and cadding a ride on an SP, freight, was found by trainmen lying beside the track between Palm Springs and Cabazon. He said that Ernest Preston, 39, also footloose with no permanent address and also filching a ride on the same freight train, assaulted him with intent to commit robbery.

Trainmen wired ahead and officers pulled Preston from the train at Beaumont.

Dull was taken to Riverside hospital for treatment for injuries and Preston went to Banning jail on vagrancy and battery charges. He had been out of jail only a short time, having been released from Indio's hoosegow just before swiping that ride on the train.

Booklet Traces History of Palm Springs Water Supply

A policy of consistent foresight and planning on the part of the Palm Springs Water Company has been responsible for the fact that Palm Springs has not suffered from a water shortage in nearly thirty years. This fact has been brought out in a booklet just published by the local water company, and now being distributed to consumers.

The 24-page brochure contains a summary of the history of water in the village from the 1880's to the present time. It traces the various sources of water from the old Agua Caliente pool, which still exists on Indian avenue, on through the years to the present three mountain streams and springs in addition to five deep wells within the city limits. Consumption at this time amounts to nearly one billion gallons annually.

A BREAK-DOWN of the chemical analysis of Palm Springs water not only reaffirms its reputed purity, but reveals that it is unnecessary to use a water softener of any kind. The hardness of the water is about 50 parts per million, quite a low figure in comparison with other California cities.

Although food has increased in price by 102 per cent, and clothing 82 per cent, with an over-all increase in the cost of living amounting to 66 per cent in 10 years, the cost of water in Palm Springs actually has decreased 8 per cent during that time, the booklet claims.

THE COMPANY goes into the subject of waste, urging conservation through attention to the small leaks so often overlooked, and to care in watering lawns. Seventy-five per cent of the residence water used locally, the booklet states, is consumed outside of the house.

"We could have written a full length book about the important subject of water on the desert," said Harold J. Hicks, president of the company. "But we summarized the story into a remarkable"

Del Sol Road Now Officially Accepted

Del Sol road, leading into Ramon road and Highway 99 at Thousand Palms and which was opened last year with a celebration, is official now.

A. C. Keith told supervisors Monday that the road was completed and they accepted his report.

Within days after capture, U. S. Army engineers had restored 153 miles of railway and were using it for frontline deliveries.

County to Enter Into State-Wide Mutual Aid Pact

Riverside county will be linked to other counties in the state in a Mutual Aid Pact it was indicated this week by supervisors. Under the agreement, the county would send law-enforcement officers, firefighters, and volunteers of the County Disaster Corps to communities afflicted by disaster caused by war or nature. And the agreement provides that other counties shall send disaster corps to Riverside county if Riverside county is afflicted.

COL. HERMAN HALVERSON, executive director of the County Disaster Council, recommended that the supervisors enter the agreement.

Supervisors asked County Counsel William Mackey to prepare the necessary papers for the legal action that would bring the county into the agreement. He probably will have them ready within two weeks.

Col. Halverson said the agreement is an improvement over previous plans by which communities promised aid to each other in disasters.

HE SAID previously a community had to negotiate a separate agreement with every other community that might be able to offer help during disaster.

Under the new agreement, Colonel Halverson said, a community signs only once but is guaranteed help of all other neighboring communities that have also signed the agreement.

Sheriff Wrong Says Hornaday

William E. Hornaday, publisher of the Inland Californian, said that Sheriff Carl Rayburn was in error when he declared in his statement of election expenses that he spent $150 for advertising in the Inland Californian.

Hornaday said that he had received no money for advertising from Sheriff Rayburn. Hornaday said a man named Bill Meyers had once offered Hornaday $200 that Meyers said he had collected from Sheriff Rayburn and another candidate.

Hornaday said, however, that he rejected the money—and before a witness, Hornaday said he will ask Sheriff Rayburn to correct his statement.

Two Cities Seek Check Suspect

Will R. Campbell—if that's his real name—is badly wanted in Palm Springs and San Diego and police of these two cities are conducting a strenuous search for him.

He is being sought locally for passing four bogus checks worth over $100 at the Palm Springs Biltmore last week. His only change in operating procedure here as compared to the other two cities where he is sought was that here his checks were from Security First National of Los Angeles whereas formerly he used Bank of America blanks.

He travels with an attractive blonde woman he calls "Cotton," said to be his wife. Campbell drives a 1950 Mercury. He is about 36, 160 pounds, five feet nine inches tall with dark hair. Sgt. Durman Ordway is working on the case locally.

Visiting Girl Scouts Given Glimpse of Life on Desert

How do you do it? Doesn't it burn you? and "Golly" were some of the expressions heard and asked of "Tommy" Thompson and Wes Chapin as they put on a "Fire eating" demonstration in full Indian costume before a group of 39 girls and four leaders of the San Gabriel Girl Scouts at the Girl Scout House on Friday night, November 24th.

Mrs. Frances Doyle, advisor, Dixie Gardner and Hortense Prieto of Senior Troop No. 9, assisted by Judy Owens, Pamela Bourne and Barbara Graham of Troop No. 3, played hostesses to the San Gabriel group who arrived about 4:30 p.m. with their food and bedrolls.

AFTER PREPARING their own dinner meal, it was decided to make a tour of the city section. For one hour, the whole group divided into patrols, made a tour of the downtown section of Palm Springs, each taking a portion so that when their reports were made at their home meetings, the whole picture could be presented.

After returning to the Scout House, Doug Doyle, Explorer Advisor, assisted by Harold Smith, built an enormous fire outside which was surrounded by the happy girls who showed attentive interest while Doyle gave

Two Cars Meet, Drivers Uninjured

Herbert D. Dowell and Edward Pearson met Tuesday noon at Barristo and Belardo roads and it cost them $400.

As they met, Dowell, 65, of Banning, was driving his 1941 De Soto and Pearson, 45, of 1156 San Lorenzo road, was in his 1949 Oldsmobile.

By the time the two drivers parted Dowell's radiator grille was damaged $200 worth and Pearson's right door was mangled for a similar sum.

Neither was injured and both were insured.

Wiefels Banning Chapel Endangered

Fire which started in a refrigerator in a building at the rear of Wiefels and Son's Mortuary in Banning early Tuesday morning, destroyed several pieces of household equipment and threatened adjacent structures before it was brought under control by the Banning fire department.

Chief Paul Randal and Volunteer Fireman Robert Ritz later received treatment from a local doctor to counteract the effects of breathing ammonia fumes. Wiefels and Sons also operate a mortuary here.

Renew War on Illegal Dumping

Careful investigation and preparation by Fire Marshal Warren Heath this week resulted in arrest and conviction of one of Palm Springs' several illegal trash dumpers. Walter Marshall, gardener, was fined $100 by Judge Eugene Theriault Tuesday and ordered to clean up his trash and everyone else's in the area on the old rodeo grounds road where he had been nabbed.

By following tracks, Marshal Heath learned Marshall's identity and laid his trap. Heath declined to reveal his confidential method of catching Marshall redhanded. The gardener appeared before Theriault voluntarily and the fine was suspended.

"He is but one of several illegal dumpers in Palm Springs," Heath said. "They seem to realize that they can use the city dump free."

Coffman Heads Salvation Army Drive in Village

Envoy O. Tracy, field representative for the Salvation Army, was in Palm Springs last week arranging for the annual campaign of the organization and announced that Earl Coffman would head the drive this year. Coffman succeeds Raymond Cree who has been chairman for years.

The Salvation Army is not a beneficiary of the Community Chest said Tracy and depends on voluntary contributions to carry on its work. A fund is deposited here for welfare work in the community and nearby towns.

On the local sponsoring committee are Earl Coffman, chairman, Fred G. Ingram, treasurer, Raymond Cree, Thomas Holland and R. E. Grattinger.

Power Failure Here is Blamed On Vandalism

Because someone had more skill as a marksman than as a thinker, Palm Springs and the desert area experienced a 17-minute power blackout last Friday, Francis F. Crocker, local California Electric Power company manager, said yesterday.

The power failure was caused by deliberate vandalism, Crocker said. The company has taken precaution at a big expense in the latest equipment to prevent such power failures but along came a vandal and all the money spent went for naught.

Someone equipped with a high-powered rifle, shot a string of suspension insulators many times, so as to completely destroy them, allowing the 88,000 volt conductor to drop.

This occurred in Richie canyon, southeast of San Bernardino.

"There is a house I want you to see . . . ask the Ransom office to bring you over . . . I'll be waiting."

This beautifully built two bedroom, two bath desert house is a standout in every respect. The best location, best design and at a price you can afford to pay. With an extensive use of glass and open areas for outdoor living; two car garage; air conditioned and bathrooms that have to be seen to be appreciated, this one should be placed on your "must see" list if you want a Palm Springs house, unfurnished.

Christmas Shopping Time---At Home

Traditionally, the intensive Christmas shopping period opens this week—with the Thanksgiving holidays behind us and Christmas Day, less than a month ahead, suddenly looming large on the calendar.

Traditionally, too, Americans buy the millions, put off the inevitable buying chore until the last possible day, or even hour—forgetting or at least ignoring the memory of that awful, jostling, crowding, nerve-shattering Johnny-Come-Lately experience of last year (which they swore they'd never procrastinate themselves into again!)

Surely, this year, there is every inducement for all of us to get our Christmas shopping started and finished early—the easy, leisurely, pleasant way—and so enjoy the holiday season to the full. Never in memory have the gift stocks in all stores been more plentiful or varied (Shades of the war years—when there was so little to choose from, and largely ersatz stuff at that!).

Shortages may loom ahead for next year and perhaps for years to come—but not for this Christmas! Christmas goods are manufactured months ahead of time, for the most part; so there was no thought of curtailment of metals or other materials for civilian goods when manufacturers and merchants were preparing for Christmas, 1950.

Palm Springs merchants are advertising everything that you could find in the biggest stores in the biggest cities of the country. So let's all save money and show mercy to our nervous systems by shopping early and at home—and thereby, for this year of 1950, escape those "never again" regrets!

Washington Menace

Some cold facts and plain talk in this week's news may cause the thinking citizen to wonder whether the gravest danger to the security of this Nation exists in Washington, D. C., rather than in Moscow.

Already—with the expressed intent of curbing inflation—the federal government has sharply curbed consumer credit, making it difficult for most citizens to go into debt for new homes, cars, washing machines, etc. But on the other hand, reports the U. S. Commerce Department, the federal government this year has gone more deeply into debt than all the private businesses and individuals put together! The federal "total net debt" is put at 218 billion dollars, while the total net private debt of the American people is 205 billions.

Declaring it absolutely essential that government curb waste and extravagance if this Nation is to remain strong, R. C. Leffingwell, an official of J. P. Morgan & Co., made this assertion: "We must prove that the seeds of death are not, as Russia's rulers say, in our American enterprise system . . . but that life and growth and health are here. To do this we must defend with utmost zeal our currency and our free economy, while we strengthen our military defense. But not much effort has been made yet by our government to control itself and its spending."

"Let government ration itself . . . Fiscal and credit controls and price controls will not suffice. If the effective demand for goods and services (and the government's demand is always effective) exceeds the supply, inflation is inevitable. We cannot long consume more than we produce. If we try to, the swollen river of inflation will flow to the sea, and the dams erected to the specifications of the Treasury or the Federal Reserve or the price and wage fixers will be washed out."

If that should be permitted to happen, Stalin wouldn't need to fight America to bring us to ruin. The seeds of our national death would have come to flower in our own capitol.

I Rise to Remark

By CONGRESSMAN JOHN PHILLIPS

With the "lame duck" session of Congress about to convene, there is increasing comment both verbal and in the papers, about the elections. It is the general opinion they were a repudiation of the fair deal. Even Southern papers comment with some amusement on the Speaker's designation of the result as a "victory." Actually, the result will make for better legislation. 49 to 47 in the Senate (as opposed to a previous 54 to 42) and 234 to 209 in the House (as opposed to the 262 to 170 plus vacancies) will result in greater attention to details in controversial legislation. One important aspect of the public protest may have escaped your attention. It deserves comment. In a measure, the people used their ballots to register their disappointment with representatives of an administration which has fed them false information, half truths, and outright propaganda on almost all subjects in our national life. The people voted out of office leaders like Tydings, Lucas, and Meyers, largely, I am sure, because these men were members of an administration which does not trust the intelligence of the people enough to tell them the truth.

THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH of government is now completely tangled in a snare of its own weaving. It is a sad fact that the people have learned to take of official announcements with doubt as to their sincerity. The people were particularly concerned about our lack of foreign policy, which produced the Korean war, and now promises another "Munich."

The hundreds of policy-making boards, commissions, and bureaus are responsible. Blame must be laid at the feet of such officials as the Secretary of State and his advisors, whose policies have been difficult to understand. The Hiss case, the American case, and the agreement at Yalta, gave considerable reason to the declining public confidence in government.

We have learned upon the United Nations organization. Yet because the people have been misled so often by administration cries of "wolf," there is little that can be done easily to offset the effects of foreign propaganda voiced at UN meetings. A simple statement from the President that this or that line is not true would be ineffective today.

THE REASON for Mr. Truman's much publicized conference with General MacArthur on Wake Island is a case in point. The North Korean forces were collapsing rapidly, and with Russia talking softly on the UN stage, public opinion was moving toward the dangerous view that Russia had learned a lesson, that a return to normalcy could be expected. The administration however recognized this danger sign. It had cried "wolf" so often that there was no simple method of turning public opinion back upon a realistic trend. A dramatic method had to be used, and the President's flight was the device used. I hope the new Congress can build a strong moral basis, on which an administration, facing the crisis, can now and in 1952 restore the confidence of the people in its elected leaders and the government they must administer.

Rev. Curtis Beach, Pasadena—"We have learned that science tells how the universe came to be and how it operates—while religion tells us why."

Dr. Frederic Evens, Manhattan Beach, president California Academy of General Practitioners—"The federal government is spending millions of the taxpayers' money trying to make the public dissatisfied with medical care in our country."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

I Have A "Close Squeak"!

Spent last Saturday morning wandering all over the house. Wherever I went—upstairs or down—I kept hearing a "squeak." Couldn't find out where it was coming from until noon when the missus came home from her weekly shopping.

"Listen," I says to her, "hear that squeak?" I started walking real quiet-like across the kitchen and there it went again! "Joe Marsh," she laughs, "that is nothing but your suspender clips rubbing back and forth when you walk!" And darned if it wasn't!

From where I sit, I'd been letting a little thing become a serious problem. Like some little difference of opinion or taste will start off a great big argument. I may prefer a temperate glass of beer with my dinner—while the missus likes tea—but we figure that no two people have exactly the same likes and dislikes. So, why get all "het up" about it?

The moral is, check your suspenders—and check your temper when it comes to little things.

Joe Marsh

How to Find Joy in Giving

This is the season when Christmas decorations begin to appear in the streets and shops and everything takes on the happy glow of the approaching holiday times. And we're all beginning to think about how we can enjoy Christmas. Do you want to know how you can make this the happiest Christmas of your life? The answer is easy: simply by trying to give yourself to others.

Does that sound like a strange notion? It isn't, really. Do you remember that wonderful story by O. Henry, "The Gift of the Magi"? It is about a couple who had almost no money at all, certainly not enough to exchange Christmas gifts. So poor were they that the husband had only one possession of which he could be proud, a gold watch he had inherited. And the wife could boast only of her magnificent head of hair, fine and soft and beautiful, a true "crowning glory."

THE APPROACH of Christmas made them sad because each couldn't afford to buy gifts for the other. The husband knew that his wife wanted most in the world was an ornamental comb for her lovely hair. And the wife knew that he was longing for a gold chain on which he might display his treasured watch.

Coming home on Christmas Eve, the man began to feel that he could not possibly go home without a gift to express his love for his beautiful wife. Making a desperate decision, he walked into a pawnshop and sold his watch for money enough to buy the sparkling comb his wife had wanted. Then, happy with the joy of being able to bring her the gift she had wanted so much, he hurried home.

HE ARRIVED to find his wife waiting for him with a package in her hands. It was, of course, a gift for him—the gold chain for which he had longed. But her beautiful tresses were gone; she had cut them and sold the hair to find money enough to buy the chain.

O. Henry points the obvious moral that, despite the chain and the comb which could no longer be used, these were the greatest gifts of all, for they were the gifts of love.

You, too, can give something of yourself with everything you give this Christmas. Make your selections personally. If you can, wrap the gift yourself. Because "the gift without the giver is bare," if at all possible take your present to the person to whom you are giving it, yourself. And in every case, accompany your gift with a prayer that God's blessings go with it.

DON'T LIMIT YOURSELF in giving. When you make your Christmas list, go beyond your family circle, your intimate friends, and those who remembered you last year. Add to your list a few persons who never gave you anything and who certainly expect to receive nothing from you. You can find real happiness by giving for your own pleasure, for the joy of giving.

Don't forget people of other races and creeds in your giving. The only power which can create brotherhood and understanding in this world is the power of friendship and love. Give in the name of Him who said, "Love one another." Give something to those who are needy and who might otherwise have little joy in the holiday season. These gifts should be among your finest. Then you can have the joy of hearing a voice within your heart say, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these . . . ye have done it unto me."

DON'T FORGET that Christmas, which celebrates the coming of a Babe, is particularly a children's holiday. Give them the gifts that can make it a memorable one for them. And remember the thousands of children all over the world who have no one to make this Christmas what it should be for every child. Do what you can for them. To these children your gift may be more than a Christmas gift, it may mean life itself.

A gift, however great or small, speaks its own language. And when it tells of the love of the giver, it is truly blessed. All religions teach the sacramental sacredness of self-giving. Give yourself with every gift and your Christmas will be a joy indeed.

Social Highlights

Full Moon Lights Up Village Parties

Moonlight steak rides, patio cocktail parties and poolside luncheons made up the social program for last weekend.

The Los Compadres group rode out to their club house Saturday evening and there with their own chuck wagon and cooking their own steaks served one of their delicious dinners under the desert moon.

Riders and diners were Ruby and Bill Aiken, Alice and Joe Butler, Shirley and Jimmy Cooper, the Earl Houghs, Elmo Purnells, Bill and Hutch Moseley, Ernie Andrade, Janice and Frank Bogert, Del and Mary Smith, the Kenny Pauls, Mary and Bill Paul, Warren Cobles and more.

The same evening Jack Boyer was serving one of his chuck wagon dinners in a moonlit canyon nearby to a group of weekend visitors and winter colonists, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. George Braly and Mr. and Mrs. William Brill.

Out at the old corral of the Desert Inn Lower Ramada Johnny Boyle rounded up nearly a hundred Desert Inn guests for a king-size barbecue and cowboy singing. Angelenos there included the J. B. T. Campbells, senior and junior, and the Alex Campbell family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bolger, the Robert Cavanaugh and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Stoecker.

Further out on the desert, La Quinta hotel guests, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keck Jr. and son Billy of Beverly Hills, were being treated to barbecued steaks in one of the high canyons a few miles beyond Palm Springs. The Kecks flew down in their own plane and sent their horses for their desert stay. With them was Mrs. Alford Rosenstern of San Francisco.

Also in the moonlight, Grace Pope's cocktail party Friday evening which especially honored her daughter, Barbara Shields and houseguest, Marge Norris, with a hundred or so guests gathered around the pool or in the lavishly decorated lanai.

Fresno Visitors Honored at Party

Cocktail party Saturday evening given by Mrs. Eleanor Kane and her daughter Mrs. Lou Hyland was in honor of Mrs. Kane's daughter and son-in-law Janie and Robert Hall who had driven down from their home in Fresno for the holidays.

Mrs. Kane has done some unusual and effective things in the spacious patio and garden or her Tahquitz River home with vine covered posts, colorful little flower beds and rare plantings. Newlyweds Mary Jane and Johnny Seaman were there looking very happy; the Russell Wades and Harry Reids; Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ransom, the Frank Bennetts, Dee-Dee Bennett and their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Otto from Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Greer, Deep Well Ranch, and many more.

Their guests were Mrs. Arnold Kirkeby, who with her daughter Carla, were spending a week at the hotel; the Dick Winans, Miss Lee Anderson, Frank Kirkeby, Mr. and Mrs. Voltaire Perkins, and the Maloufs' daughter Carol and her cousin Marlene Malouf.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Geierman hosted a gay gathering at their Sea Horse Sunday evening. All came with paint brushes in hand for a little decorating job. Dinner menu—delicious sea food. ### St. Pauls Guild Completing Plans For Canasta Party Tuesday Night

Members of St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Guild were completing plans for the Canasta, chicken dinner and Christmas party to be held December 5 in the Parish hall of the church at 6:30 p.m. The affair will replace the bazaar usually held by the guild.

Acting as general chairman is Mrs. John S. Hobson, assisted by the guild's president, Mrs. Edward Maggard, Mrs. Clarence Woodmanson is arranging for the dinner, in charge of the Christmas Tree Grab Bag will be Mrs. Kenneth Kirk, and Mrs. Richard Pace.

The Canasta game will be directed by Mrs. Maggard and Mrs. John S. Lapp, and there will be prizes for the four highest scores; two for high men and two for women.

Tickets, which include both dinner and Canasta, may be obtained from Mrs. Frank Camp, phone 2362, or Mrs. Lapp, phone 6911. Reservations are limited to 150 people, and should be made before Sunday.

The articles on the Christmas Tree range in value from $1.00 to as high as $25.00—all grabs are $1.00. Those who like to get a chance will be sure of getting their money's worth, and in most cases much more than that, as the gifts are all donated, many by local merchants.

Mrs. Frank Partridge and Mrs. Lapp are handling the publicity, and Mrs. Emma Benedict will be in charge of the decorations.

Bernard of Hollywood Wins New Fame With His Magazine---Pin Ups

Bernard of Hollywood is gaining additional fame as a photographer and incidentally giving Palm Springs some additional fame, too, as his latest work—Pin-Ups—is being circulated throughout the nation.

The new magazine, a collection of photographs of beautiful girls, went on newsstands last week and locally, a sell-out was reported within a short time.

Hearst International Magazine is acting as distributor of Pin-Ups which had an original printing of 200,000. At present, the magazine is an annual but Bernard is being asked to make it a quarterly.

Palm Springs has a vital interest in the new magazine as the idea was conceived here and the first model was from Palm Springs—Minka Diaz.

Many of the backgrounds for the models are local scenes.

The new magazine made an instant hit with big names along Hollywood boulevard. Bernard has a bookful of enthusiastic endorsements signed by prominent film and celebrities who wrote him while staying here or from the movie colony in Hollywood.

His artistry is highly praised in all of the notes.

Palm Desert Sunbeams

By EDITH EDDY WARD

Pheasant season has just closed—and Trez and Elizabeth Trezvant bagged their limits of both pheasant and quail. They report their hunting trip in the Chico district of northern California was a "nimrod's" dream come true. Their enthusiasm all stems from the fact that they were guests of the world famous guide, hunter and wild game caller, Lee Gaither. Mr. Gaither needs no introduction in hunting circles. He was the official guide to President Coolidge and a party of 100 on a trip through Yellowstone National Park, during the time Mr. Coolidge was president. Incidentally, the Trezvants nearly lost their house trailer in the floods—fortunately they had moved it to higher ground upon packing into the wilds to hunt.

Brian Donlay, who has been spending some time in Palm Desert has purchased a Sun Lodge this week. Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Crocker, president of the Beach City Chevrolet agency in Long Beach also purchased one of the attractive Sun Lodges. The Crockers are originally from Chicago and are close friends of Nina and Dick Winans. They have also taken out membership in the Shadow Mountain Club.

It was a very festive week at Shadow Mountain Club climaxed by a big Thanksgiving dinner for members, and their families and friends. There was a turkey shoot in which around fifty club members participated. The tennis courts were most popular over the holiday with Flo Allen doing a bang-up job giving tennis lessons. An interesting mixed doubles tournament was held in which Cliff Henderson and Flo were the champions.

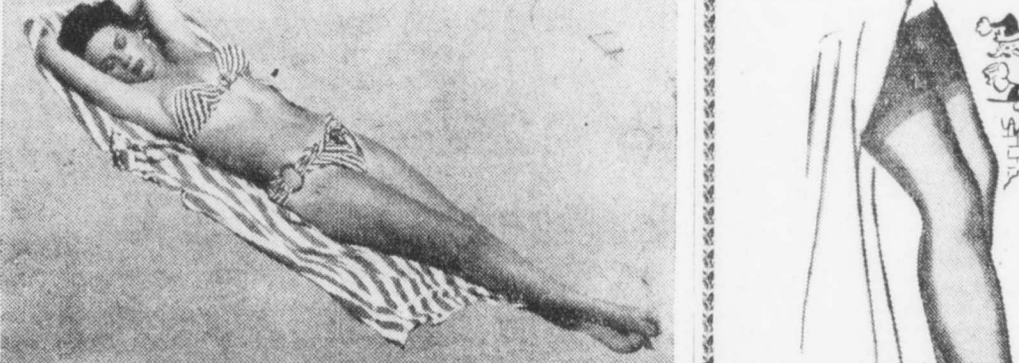

Many celebrities were among the gathering at the club for "family style" Thanksgiving dinner, and for the dinner dances over the weekend.

There were the Van Johnsons and their children, George Montgomery and Dinah Shore who visited, the Clarence Browns, Charles Winnegar, Senator and Mrs. Carl Weber, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clark, who own the R R Ranch in Idaho; William Holden and his wife, Brenda Marshall and their children; Bill's dad Mr. Beedle, and his brother Dick Beedle and wife and the Bob Lerner's. Bill Holden's family group cooked their own turkey at the Palm Desert Adobe. The Holden children participated in the stable activities of the club, enjoying the breakfast rides. Other guests at Palm Desert lodges included the George Smith's, Paramount executive, Bill Taylor, daddy of "Rain Drops", the Joseph Clark's of Palos Verdes, the Russell Kauffman's, Barker Brothers executive, Mr. and Mrs. Leon W. Delbridge, the R. E. Shephards, who manufacture "Evans Clothes," Mrs. Marcella Noonan of Las Vegas, the Dolph Obergfelds, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Allen and their talented daughter, Priscilla, who is a top ranking professional ballet dancer, and Priscilla's friend Francesca Leland, who is a champion tennis player and high diver; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Towne and their two daughters, and the William Selters.

Many parties had the spot light during Thanksgiving week. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bear entertained graciously in their beautiful Palm Desert home. Their guests were six couples from Glendale who all belong to a Glendale social club. Their hospitality was in the form of a house-party starting Friday through Sunday. Breakfasts were served on the Bear's spacious terrace and their guests also enjoyed square dancing in the evening on the terrace under the stars. It was a weekend long to be remembered.

Grace Pope of Palm Springs entertained a large group in her home last week, including in her guest list many people from Palm Desert. Among those attending were Stella Converse, the Fred Talbots, Vernon and Lorraine Peck, Cliff Henderson, and Dick and Nina Winans.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Johnson are new occupants of the K. B. Kumpke residence on Vereda del Sur.

Invest This Christmas in Palm Springs

We don't say "spend" this Christmas in Palm Springs. If you're a true desert lover, you will do that anyway. We do say "invest" it... because your Christmas shopping done with merchants here is an investment in building the community of which we are all so fond.

Nor do you need to look very far here for a wide selection of splendid gifts at reasonable prices. We are not alone among Palm Springs merchants in keeping prices DOWN, so that those who live here can feel really "at home" here when they do all their buying here.

We don't go in much for sales, advertising a few low priced items to bring you into the store but hoping that you will buy something else. But we always offer bargains. Good merchandise at a fair price is bound to be a bargain when, in order to buy it at the same price or higher somewhere else, you have to add the cost of getting there.

Cathedral City Club Plans Fashion Tea

A Fashion Tea will be given by the Cathedral City Women's Club next Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in the beautiful grounds of the Wonder Palms hotel just a mile east of Cathedral City. Extensive plans for the afternoon are in the hands of Mrs. Marjorie Ballagh, ways and means chairman, and her committee consisting of Margaret Davidson and Mmes. Alice Kunkel, Edith Flaherty and Alpha-mae Larrison. The shops participating in the fashion show are, Kay Nichols of Palm Springs, also of Reno and Lake Tahoe, The Desert Aire Dress Shop of Cathedral City and Scott's Western Wear also of Cathedral City. During the afternoon there will be a water ballet starring two noted Palm Springs high school girl swimmers, Sally Pringle and Barbara DeVorzon.

"The Woman's Club donates generously to many philanthropic and civic projects," the president, Mrs. Curtis Ring, points out. "The small charge for the affair not only provides a very pleasant afternoon's entertainment but also the profit goes toward such worthy causes as the cancer fund, the March of Dimes and the Community Chest. The public is cordially invited to attend this delightful club function and tickets may be obtained at the Desert Aire Shop or Scott's Western Wear in Cathedral City and at Kay Nichols in Palm Springs."

Allied Artists Hear of Stars

Allied Artists Association of Palm Springs met Monday evening in Frances Stevens school. M. J. Swetland of Rancho Mirage, retired publisher and writer, was the speaker, giving as his talk an informal discussion of astronomy, which he called the "Mystery of the Heavens." Following the meeting a social hour was enjoyed by the members and friends who were present. It is planned to have more of these informal meetings during the winter, to which the public is invited.

HAVE SOME BUTTERED, browned potatoes with your next meat course for a delectable treat. Cook potatoes in their jackets, then slip off skin. Melt butter in heavy skillet and place potatoes in it. Shake pan while potatoes get browned and buttered.

Your leftover lamb can be ground, seasoned and mixed with minced cooked potatoes. Shape into patties and simmer in a small amount of barbecue sauce.

Corned beef can be baked after it has been boiled until tender.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Stuffed Spareribs

(Serves 4)

- 2 cups mashed sweet potatoes
  - 1 tablespoon minced onion
  - 1 cup cooked rice
  - 1½ cups minced celery
  - 2 tablespoons melted fat
  - Salt and pepper
  - 4 pounds spareribs
- Mix together potatoes, onion, rice, celery, fat and seasonings. Break spareribs through center and remove surplus fat. Spread mixture on bony side of ribs, fold in center to cover filling with other half. Place in baking dish with heavy meat side on top. Season meat and dust with flour. Cover bottom of pan with boiling water. Cook in moderate (350° F.) oven for 1½ to 2 hours or until tender.

Stick the fat with cloves and sprinkle with brown sugar before baking until brown.

Vary your chicken shortcake by serving on squares of cornbread in place of baking powder biscuits. Have plenty of chicken gravy or white sauce to go with it.

Make your favorite recipe for meat balls and brown them in a skillet. Add canned onion or mushroom soup, diluted, and simmer meat balls in this.

It doesn't always have to be hash when you have leftover meat! Mix meat with onion, green pepper strips and kernel corn. Sauté, then add tomato juice and chili powder and heat through. Serve with rice. Line a buttered casserole with cooked rice. Over this place chunks of chicken or turkey and some sautéed mushrooms. Cover with cream sauce and bake until bubbly.

Social ACTIVITIES

BACK TO RACQUET CLUB—There'll be another gay party at the Racquet Club on December 9 when the Firehouse Five Plus Two return for another engagement "by popular demand" said Charley Farrell. They are shown in action above.

Police to Dine At Doll House

Police are going to be guests of the Doll House on a sort of progressive plan. George and Ethel Strebe have extended their invitation for the annual spaghetti feast but since somebody has to stay on duty to guard the town, the party will be held on successive evenings for various members of the force.

Those invited this week are Captain Orest Johnson and his wife, Sergeant and Mrs. James Maynard, Sergeant and Mrs. William Lux, and Sergeant and Mrs. Durman Ordway.

Joining them will be the following officers and their wives: William Hecht, Dale Thompson, Ray King, John Herrera, Ted Green, Robert Young, Robert White, James Clarkson, Warren Hockenberry, John Hollinger, W. L. Jessup and Mr. and Mrs. Worth Gorman.

Noted Developer Vacations Here

Pioneer in solving the Los Angeles area housing shortage, according to Time magazine, Mark Taper took time off last weekend to holiday with Mrs. Taper at Villa Hermosa.

Co-builder of Lakewood Park, the $136 million, 3,500 acre, 70,000 population city near Long Beach, Taper, a Londoner himself, has done more, perhaps, than any individual toward providing low cost comfort in housing for the tremendous influx of Los Angeles county influx and demand.

The largest community shopping center in the world will be included in the vast Lakewood project, according to Taper, a Londoner who came to California to retire 12 years ago. Then came the housing challenge, which Wizard Taper has met for his particular area.

Canadian Honeymooners Visit Sister in Village

Village Shriners and their wives, 100-strong, dined, danced and relished special entertainment Tuesday night at Saddle and Siroin as they observed that honorary order's gala premier social function of the season.

George Wheeler reigned as president pro-tem for the group, due to the absence of President Charles Cobb, soon to return home from the east.

James Cavett, entertainment chairman for the festive occasion, pulled Jules and Webb, musicians and mind-readers, plus Tex Kidwell, cowboy guitarist, out of his sleeve as extra entertainment on the program.

The Eastman trio made their bow at the S. and S. as musician-impersonators.

Secretary John Archibald was reservations chairman for the colorful shindig. Carroll Waller is treasurer of the local Shrine club.

The Grass Is Not Always Greener on the other side . . . according to Thorne and Pamela Holmes who claim they tore themselves away from the desert long enough to see how the other half lives. They prefer their own half! Pam and Thorne (popular young managers at Firecliff) admit, however, that they enjoyed the visit with her grandparents who have just purchased the "Home of the Year" in Coronado.

Puppet Revue Monday for Club Women

By RUTH MARTIN

Lords' Puppets, a "spectacular, hilarious and distinctly different revue for adults," as well as a delightful program for all ages, is scheduled for presentation at the Palm Spring Woman's Club for the evening of December 4th at eight o'clock.

Special attention is called to the fact that this will be a night program so that all members of the family may avail themselves of the unusual opportunity to enjoy this highly original and delightful event. This beautiful and interesting performance is not an ordinary Puppet Show but really a musical and dramatic presentation of splendid quality and unique entertainment.

Daniel Lords, the young impresario who manipulates the Broadway Revue of marionettes, has been featured in twenty-three motion pictures and NBC Television has been the scene of his latest triumphs. He has been heard in numerous radio appearances with Alec Templeton, Nelson Eddy, Claudette Colbert, Max Reinhardt and other equally important personages.

Tickets of admission have been held to the usual $1.20 fee or guest card and the public is cordially invited and urged to attend this fascinating event.

Eastern Trio Hit at S&S

Three of the funniest musical clowns ever to hold forth in Palm Springs at a local night club are currently convulsing the patrons of Dave Lyon's Saddle and Sirolo.

Called the Eastman Trio and consisting of Ted Noga, clarinetist, Eddie Starr, accordionist and Al Simon with his bass viol, the combination engage in antics that range from the sublime to the ridiculous.

When the Eastman trio finished their first stint opening night before a packed room at the Saddle and Sirolo the patrons refused to permit the players to leave the floor.

Their engagement at the Dave Lyons' establishment runs for seven weeks after which they depart for New York City and their own television show. They have already been heard on the radio, in recordings and at one time appeared with Paul Whitehead's band and with both Jack Benny and Bob Hope as guests.

VILLAGERS

Recovering from an operation performed in Los Angeles, Mrs. Sara Sack, mother of Villagers Mrs. Marvin Wade and Mrs. Martin Ruderman is expected back home by her family soon. The Wades and Rudermans live cosily next-doorish on Sunny Dunes and San Antonio. Mother Sack often is mistaken for daughter Marion Wade. The entire family is all-out in their love for dogs, maintaining several really "superior" strays as members of their warm-hearted households.

Recuperating in Palm Springs with her niece, Mrs. Electa Noyes recently was Mrs. Elizabeth Fairley of Santa Monica, accompanied by a mutual friend, Mrs. Mary Hayden of San Diego.

Farewell "brunch" guests chez Mrs. Noyes on North Palm Canyon included her mother, Mrs. Mathilda Kennedy, president of Santa Monica's pioneer society, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seaford of Los Angeles and Mrs. Noyes' house guests. Another recent sojourner with Mrs. Noyes was Mrs. May Belle Slaney, supervisor of Los Angeles County Welfare department.

Making the acquaintance of 4-month-old Edward and visiting the Charles Woodmans of San Lucas road are Mrs. Woodman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. John H. Williams of Cambridge, Mass. The new father is city planner for the Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonald of the local Water company are building their new hogan on Calle San Marcus, soon to be ready for occupancy.

Thanksgiving guests of the Arnold Lubachs, Camino San Miguel, were aunt and uncle of Mrs. Lubach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moe of San Juan, Capistrano.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilcox, of San Bernardino, visited the bride's parents, the Elmo Furnels at Thanksgiving, as did Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mitchell of Menlo Park. Then the entire party drove to Porterville to see Elmo's parents, the John Furnels.

Realtors Henry Reid, Jr., and Russell Wade have returned from a business trip to Dallas, Texas. These bright local boys are co-developers of Tahquitz River estates.

Winter menages of Dr. Alfred Strauss and the Raymond Wilsons have been reopened for the season, the former on North Patencia road; latter, Vereda del Sur.

George Zaphir of the Chi Chi staff and Mrs. Zaphir have joined the Sunny Dunes, also cognomened El Cielo, tract colony of permanent localities. They are Calle San Raphael residents now.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Cole took off Tuesday on a brief Arizona vacation jaunt. The Coles' new residence is behind the mountain-side lights recently added to the night scene just beyond Casitas del Monte.

Back from Korea where he flew B-29 bombers, Lieutenant Eugene Simon, stationed at Riverside, is visiting his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Archie McDonald of North Palm Canyon.

Former Villager Miss Margaret Wenner, now of Los Angeles, accompanied by sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Schleiter, were guests this week of Miss Irene Johnson, local Bank of America escrow expert.

Mr. Homer Fern, well known ex-localite, returned here for treatment of allergy difficulties, at Community hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Marty Kenyon introduced their new daughter to her maternal grandparents last weekend, the Jess Butlers of El Monte.

Village resident for more than 20 years, Mrs. Don Milner is carrying on with broken wrist in cast, as co-manager of the now historic dime store on the drive.

Rearranging stock in preparation for the holiday rush, Mrs. Milner slipped from a precarious perch.

Don and Marie Milner launched their local career as staff members of the Desert Inn, now own considerable downtown property, continue to operate their landmark variety store.

The Milners reside in the former residence of Steve Willard.

The Robert Clarkes of Camino San Miguel, including of course very young Sandra and Patrick, are house guests of Bob's parents, the Harry Clarkes of Keokuk, Iowa. The senior Clarkes' grown daughters, Kathleen and Joanne, are Palm Springs-struck, plan to stay awhile longer than their parents.

Another Christmas party for the 400-plus children of local Legionnaires will be staged by women members of the local Coffman post. It was announced today by Dorothy Mallory, chairman for this year's Santa Claus festival.

The kids' holiday party will be held at the Legion hall again, with entertainment by local school groups.

Bill and Barbara Foster, son and daughter-in-law of the H. H. Fosters, a name associated with big building throughout the town, will move into their new home on North Riverside drive soon. The Bill Fosters are proud parents of two-year-old Angie.

Bobby Sandoval, son of the Joe Sandovals, observed his fourth birthday Friday by entertaining the entire morning class at Palm Springs Play school with an ice cream and cake party.

Twenty-five nursery-schoolers attended the matinal celebration featured by Thanksgiving favors.

The Sal Allesandros, with son Richard, made a business-pleasure trip to Las Vegas at Thanksgiving time, reporting a gambling type of prosperity atmosphere at that resort center, and pleasant weather, not as warm as the home brand.

Mrs. Don Spangler is back after two weeks of visiting in Los Angeles, again gracing the warm-hearted community confabs in Don's emporium on the Drive.

TRAVEL--ALONG

With JAN and GEORGE OLMAN

TWA WINTER HOLIDAYS! Twa has again published a beautiful booklet of Winter Holidays similar to their Summer Holidays edition. And most important of all to us here in Palm Springs is the section on California Vacations. They outline a tour of California—three days in Los Angeles—SEVEN days in Palm Springs—two days in San Diego—two days in San Francisco! Half of the California section is devoted to describing Palm Springs—it's "nearly perfect" climate—sunbathing, etc. This book is distributed throughout the United States and the entire world—and millions of copies printed. We have been discussing with TWA for the past two years the fact that they should "include Palm Springs in"—so thank you, TWA, for listening to our request on your "Quickie Vacations to the Sun Country" promotions!

Freighter travel for relaxing summer vacations. Planning now for your summer vacations—early bird gets the worm!—or in this case—the reservation. We've had a number of requests for the relaxation of freighter travel—no dress up—no formalities. Moore-McCormack Lines has an excellent casual informal voyage from Los Angeles through the Canal to Cartagena, Colombia; Curacao; Venezuelan ports; Trinidad; Rio de Janeiro; Santos; Montevideo; and Buenos Aires. The roundtrip voyage takes about 78 to 80 days—you can, however, take the cruise one way and fly back by way of the west coast.

SCANDINAVIA via Swedish, Norwegian or Danish freighters, from either New York, New Orleans, or Los Angeles! You know the reputation fast going motorships with luxurious passenger accommodations. All cabins with private baths, wide windows, spacious public rooms. Some carry 12 passengers—some carry 24.

LOS ANGELES TO NEW YORK by way of the Panama Canal. Or San Francisco to New York visit in the Panama Canal—San Juan, Puerto Rico—enroute. Twelve passengers freighters with excellent accommodations. Arrow Line—American President Line—Pope & Talbot Company. Nineteen days to read, eat, and relax, before you begin the "New York" living!

HAWAII, TOO, BY FREIGHTER—five day trip—twelve passengers—famous desert photographer, on South Palm Canyon.

Local Pioneer Ed Bunker, came down from Bunker ranch in the San Jacinto mountains with Mrs. Bunker this week to savor modern resort life at the Pueblo.

Jere and Jan Weber, managers of that hostelry, are long-time friends of the Bunkers, since the Webers "go native" with the mountaineer Bunkers each summer.

Ed Bunker came to the Village around or about 1912, opening a horse-shoeing and gas-buggy repair shop where the Village pharmacy now operates much more furiously.

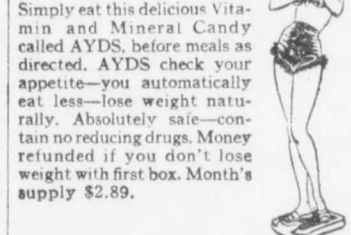

gers. Last summer we had a couple going over on one of the Matson freighters—we saw a cargo of chickens and pigs being loaded aboard—and thought "oh no!"—however, our clients reported a wonderful trip over—no disturbance by the aforementioned animals . . . liked the trip so much they stayed aboard and visited the other islands before returning and disembarking at Honolulu!

DUTCH CARGO PASSENGERS vessels said from this coast to Africa on leisurely cruises through the Panama Canal. Excellent cruises also from New Orleans on the Delta Line to Africa. Enjoy a tour through Africa and return either by freighter or on the new luxury liners to New York!

SIXTEEN GLORIOUS DAYS TO CALIFORNIA BY SEA—that's the title of the new folder of American President Lines round-the-world luxury liner—for their sixteen day trip from New York to California enroute "around." Mr. and Mrs. Renaud Hoffman of Thousand Palms will leave the desert for New York after Thanksgiving to attend the debut of Theodor Uppman, baritone, at the Times Hall in New York City. Then they will return on the President Polk cruise to Los Angeles—the desert—a couple of days fun at Havana—Panama—possibly Acapulco!

CARONIA ROUND THE WORLD CRUISE visits Los Angeles January 8th. They have just announced they will carry passengers from this coast to Australia—or to Bombay! This is a wonderful opportunity to sail

Felix, Leo, Sue Back Again

They're back on the Desert! Yes, Felix, Leo and Sue are back together again, calling themselves "Felix and his Martiniques" and set to open at the new Mirage Room at the La Quinta Hotel, December 15.

For many seasons Felix and Leo held forth at Palm Springs' famed Doll House, joined intermittently by Sue Stanley adding her spicy vocal renditions of Latin-American themes and current ballads.

After leaving the Doll House engagements and going East, the trio found new fame and following at one of Chicago's smart Pump rooms, and during this year's summer months appeared at Vaux in Balboa.

GBS--In Person, Gets Marriage Paper in County

Deputy County Clerk Marjorie Bland at the county court house reported Wednesday she had issued a marriage license to George Bernard Shaw.

She said she did a double take when he told his name. "Yes, that's right," he assured her, and he stroked an invisible beard.

It turned out, however, that this George Bernard Shaw was from San Gabriel, was alive and was only 34 years old. His wife-to-be was Miss Ruth Laurene Smart, 27, also of San Gabriel.

During the two weeks after landings at Inchon, Korea the Navy unloaded a ton of food or supplies for each man put ashore.

Clarice will be joined by her husband, Eddie Ellis who is stationed at Vacaville in the Air Corps, at the Beebe family home, 1522 Mesquite avenue, Tahquitz River Estates. ## Church Group Enjoys Hayride, Picnic Supper

A moonlight hayride with cowboy music around a blazing bonfire is relished as much by local folk as by visiting easterners, as proven by such a function staged under auspices of the Community church Fellowship group last Saturday evening.

More than 20 local couples rode in the hay wagon, furnished by La Paz stables. The George McPheeters were hosts for the novel event, and Accordionist Tom Neblung and Guitarist Johnny Roberts furnishing musical background for the "dream-like" evening gathering, held at tables set up in a picturesque canyon south of town.

Jack Boyer and Ray Mills of La Paz stables had coffee boiling when the hay wagon riders turned in at the appointed rendezvous, or waterhole.

Dr. and Mrs. James H. Blackstone, Jr., of Community church rode the hay wagon. Officers of the group are: Lewis Duncan, president; Donald Cole, vice-president; Harold Moore, secretary; Frank Miller, treasurer.

Jan Peterson, Lucien Shaw To Wed Soon

Farewell to Lieutenant and Mrs. Jerry "J. R." Jackson, now of Lima, Peru, where the flyer son is employed with Penagra Air Lines, was the main theme of the home observance.

Mrs. Francis Cooley of Los Angeles, with her family; Miss Diane Jackson of St. Mary's Academy in Los Angeles and Kenneth Dwight of the Village were the other Jackson children attending holiday functions here. Lieutenant J. E. Jackson, Jr., stationed in Texas, was unable to attend the family reunion, but telephoned his desire to be present.

Friends attending the various Jackson functions included Mr. and Mrs. Cy Fletcher of Seattle, Mrs. Oola Flickinger of Azusa, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Travers, Mrs. Eva Friedlund of Redlands, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stutz, Mr. and Mrs. John Kline, Mrs. Lucille

My, how we have grown!

Just like Junior, Palm Springs and our desert communities, Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs, Joshua Tree, and Twentynine Palms, have grown these past five years—and so have we. It is easy enough to see the signs of expansion everywhere, but to be statistically sharp about the matter let us have a look at a fairly accurate yardstick—telephone figures.

TELEPHONES IN SERVICE PALM SPRINGS DISTRICT	PLANT INVESTMENT PALM SPRINGS DISTRICT
1945 _____ 2441	1945 _____ $371,000
1950 _____ 3842	1950 _____ $982,000
Increase _____ 57%	Increase _____ 164%

The investment of more than $600,000 in our Palm Springs District plant in the past five years was necessary to expand facilities to meet the heavy demand for service. . . . Notice that the plant investment went up 2 1/2 times more in percentage than the number of telephones. This is one reason why higher rates are required. . . . And in 1951 more money will be needed for still more plant expansion. To keep abreast of population growth, your telephone company must keep on developing month after month.

Money for new construction does not come from telephone bills but from investors who expect a fair return for the use of their funds. This means that rates for service must be sufficient to offset the higher operating costs of today to provide earnings that will produce that fair return.

366 Million Spent in Southland by Tourists

Out-of-state tourists poured $366,117,047 of spendings into the southland during the past year. This was reported to the board of directors of the All-Year club, community travel advertising organization, today by Don Thomas, managing-director. The directors meeting was held at the Los Angeles Biltmore with President Willard W. Keith presiding.

The $366,117,047, a powerful stimulant to the area's business and employment was 11 per cent less than the year before, due in part to the freak winter weather which discouraged many eastern sun-seekers, he said. The travel year ended Labor Day on an up-trend, with the number of visitors in the summer season exceeding the year before.

THIS MONEY was spent here by 2,619,979 pleasure visitors. The average tourist party spent $325 while in southern California. The total cost of his trip from home to home again, however, was $750—which "is a good indication of the economic

Zone Recording Bill Proposed

State Assemblyman John Babbage said Tuesday he is preparing a bill for the state legislature that would require zoning provisions to be recorded on property deeds in the county recorder's office.

Babbage reported his action in a letter to supervisors this week. They had asked him to promote the bill. Supervisor Ed Hill first proposed it.

Babbage said: "I have written to the legislative counsel in Sacramento, requesting that a bill be prepared covering this matter for presentation in the assembly at the next session of the legislature."

If the law is passed, a deed for a lot that is zoned to prohibit anything but residences would bear the record of that zoning on the face of the deed.

Conservation Group Elects Carl Keene

Villager is Chosen Head of County Group at Riverside

Carl Keene, Palm Springs sportsman, was elected president of the Riverside County Conservation Commission when the group held a meeting this week in Indio.

Other new officers are: Ernest Maxwell, Idyllwild, first vice president; San Johnson, Hemet, second vice president, and Art McCahan, Indio, secretary. Johnson is the retiring president. The new slate will take over in January.

Five More Sun Lodges Planned

Cliff Henderson, president of the Palm Desert Corporation, announced this week that five more Sun Lodges would be constructed immediately in the eleven acre tract adjacent to the million dollar Shadow Mountain Club.

The new Sun Lodges will be added to the present grouping to complete a unit of individually owned deluxe bungalows grouped around their exclusive swimming pool. Each lodge has accommodations for from four to six people, with living room, bedroom, bath with tub and shower, dinette and Murphy kitchen. They were designed by Walter White, Palm Springs architect, and are priced to sell for about $8,000 to fulfill the growing demand for low-priced desert homes.

Lt. Stinson Flies 60th Mission

Lt. Edward A. Stinson, F-51 fighter pilot with the 40th Fighter Squadron, U. S. Air Force, flew his 60th mission in Korea recently, according to word received here by friends recently.

Stinson, a native of Palm Springs, has over 150 combat hours to his credit. His mother, Mrs. Ann Stinson, is now living in the Village.

By LYN CONNELLY

MEREDITH WILLSON sums up Manhattan television: "New York is a gold rush to make the '49 days look like a ladies tea . . ."

Everybody is playing theatre with billions of dollars and cheerfully learning show business by trial and error. . . . Dinah Shore and Tony Martin may join Jack Benny when he entertains Korean fighters at Christmas. . . .

Let's hope Jack takes it easier on his trip than the late, great Al Jolson. . . . Al was warned by medics against the trip, but felt it was the least he could do for the troops. . . . At 67 (his actual age) he undertook too much and Jack, no chicken himself, is going at the same pace what with radio, TV, a command performance in London coming up and Korea, too.

PLATTER CHATTER COLUMBIA: The Mariners do a fine job with "Beyond the Reef" . . . It's backed by "Minnequa" . . . A new Christmas ditty by that popular cowboy, Gene Autry, is "When Santa Claus Gets Your Letter" . . . Gene adds a light note to the reverse, "Frosty the Snow Man" . . . Bob Chester's "Forgive Me" is worth going over . . . "Have You?" is on the flip . . . Al Trace has a cutie in "Sticks and Stones," coupled with "W. H. E. N." . . . Western fans, try Dusty Walker's latest disc, "Proud Little Heart" paired with "Silver River."

MERCURY: New song going the rounds and heading for the top is "The Petite Waltz" and Lawrence Welk has a lilting rendition . . . "I'm in the Middle of a Riddle" backs it . . . Eddy Howard sings the new "The Red We Want Is the Red We've Got" with zing . . . The beautiful "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" is a happy choice for the flip.

CAPTIVE: Jo Stafford and Gordon MacRae are together again in another excellent recording which pairs the old favorite "Tea for Two" with the new one, "I'm in the Middle of a Riddle" . . . Jan Garber comes up with a fine effort in the lovely "Daddy's Little Boy."

Fish, Game Ass'n. Urged in County

Sportsmen this week initiated steps to form a Riverside County Fish and Game Commission. Meeting in Indio, members of the County Conservation Commission voted to have County Counsel William O. Mackey draw up an ordinance to be presented to the county board of supervisors.

The formation of a fish and game commission would simplify the procedure for expending the county's share of fine money, the sportsmen feel. One half of all fish and game fines levied in the county are returned here for fish and game conservation. During the past three years this fund has amounted to about $5000.

Driver Arrested After Accident

Edison W. Renaud, 41, of Long Beach, was at liberty under $250 bail awaiting hearing on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was arrested Sunday evening after an accident on Indian avenue.

Renaud's automobile side-swiped one driven by Roderick D. Burnham, police, who investigated, said that Renaud was five feet over the center stripe at the time of the accident. Medical examination at the police station revealed Renaud under the influence of alcohol, police said.

Date Growers Urged To Exhibit at Fair

Riverside county's desert area date growers were urged today by Manager Bob Fullenwider to save their choice dates for exhibition at the coming 1951 Riverside County Fair & National Date Festival which has been scheduled for the Indio Fairgrounds, Feb. 16-22, inclusive.

"We hope," said Fullenwider, "that a greater number of growers and packing houses will exhibit their choicest dates at the coming fair and festival. Since the event is a date festival as well as a county fair, we have always, naturally, made plans to have as great an array of date exhibits as possible."

PALM SPRINGS STOCKERS CLUB IS GOING STRONG

One of the most unique organizations in town and mushrooming in growth is the Palm Springs Stockers club, an organization of youths interested in automobiles, plus a few adults for guidance.

They have their own club house on Radio road and it is a lively place. All through the football season there was a Friday night victory dance and these are still in progress.

Gary Sanders is president of the group and Douglas Doyle, advisor.

They are strict disciplinaries as to their club house which is orderly at all times in behavior and appearance.

Chief interest of the club is automobiles and one requisite of membership is that they own an automobile or have access to one. They are all stock cars and stunting is strictly forbidden.

Mechanics of automobiles are the chief objective of the club. One of the by-laws is that if a member is given a traffic ticket and fined he has to duplicate that fine to the club's treasury.

At a recent meeting of the club Jimmy Jackson of Desert Hot Springs, noted race driver who has been in several Indianapolis 500-milers, was guest speaker.

Prior to Nov. 6, more than 135,000 soldiers of the North Korean Red Army were captured by United Nations forces.

Local police and deputy sheriffs are aiding the Stockers and give them support and advice.

Dianetics Group Hears Speaker

A second speaker in as many weeks will discuss dianetics Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at Wars Memorial hall. Last week some 75 heard Gene Benton who is in charge of the training program at the Hubbard Dianetic Research Foundation in Los Angeles.

This Sunday C. Richard Baker, director of Palm Springs Dianetics society, will deliver the second free talk.

The book, Dianetics, published last summer by L. Ron Hubbard, has a galvanizing effect on persons interested in psychoanalysis, psychology and psychiatry in general. Its basic concept being that man's behavior is governed in part by the subconscious memory of early pain, fear and trauma.

Patients "audited" through dianetics testify that through this system, prenatal memories of an unpleasant and painful nature, can be brought to the conscious mind and evaluated, thus rendering them innocuous and no longer a disrupting influence.

MAN-MADE RAIN

"You can't improve on Nature" used to be an oft-quoted expression that was accepted as a fact by most people. Fortunately, some questioned the statement and as a result Americans enjoy a more bountiful life. In the field of agriculture, especially, scientific contributions in animal husbandry, farming methods, and water conservation have enabled Man to improve upon Nature. Each year thousands of acres of formerly arid lands are brought under cultivation as flood waters are harnessed and stored for year-around use. With water available, even marginal pasture land can be made to sustain additional livestock throughout the year with portable overhead irrigation. On many ranches and farms, electrical pumps force life-bringing water through miles of pipes . . . producing man-made rain when and where man wants it!

Indians Run Over St. Bernardine In First CIF Play-Off Game 38-6

Repeated Penalties Hold Down Score—Many Subs Given Chance in Contest

Repeating their performance of the first game of the 1950 football season, the Palm Springs Indians rolled over the St. Bernardine Crusaders for the second time this year, 38 to 6, in the Indian's first CIF playoff contest Saturday afternoon.

SUN SPORTS IDELIGHTS

By GUS STEVENS

But for a longer straw it might have been either Tustin or Laguna Beach high schools that Palm Springs would be meeting tonight instead of Garden Grove.

When the final game in the Orange League had been played, Coach Blanchard Beatty of the Argonauts plucked the shortest of three straws and won the right to represent the league in the CIF playoffs.

Tustin, Laguna and Garden Grove wound up the season with identical 4-1 records and a knotty triangle in which each of the league leaders had been beaten by one of the others. Laguna defeated Garden Grove, Tustin rolled over Laguna and Garden Grove gobbled up the works by edging Tustin.

So Grovers won the championship by the proverbial cat's whiskers—only in this case it was a short straw.

AS OF THIS WRITING I don't know who league representatives and football writers have chosen for the 1950 all RCL team, but I know which Palm Spring griders ought to be on it. Fearful that I might get carried away and name the entire team, I've limited local selections to three.

Two of the three are back. Back to back: Johnny Black and Fullback Charlie Black. Since the name Black has been shouted throughout the RCL since the beginning of the season and since several reams of copy have been printed singing praises of the famous brother act of Palm Springs, further reasons for their selection are not necessary here. Suffice to say that Charlie stood out in virtually every game of the season. When he was too banged up to operate at full capacity, Johnny ran doubly hard to minimize the loss of the plunging fullback.

There were several standouts in the line—none of whom received due credit for their outstanding season's work. Ed Griffing, Oscar Prieto and Marvin Hale bulwarked the Indian forward wall week after week. Hale is my third selection for all-league honors.

The aggressive center's appearance in the lineup after an early season absence marked the transformation of a mediocre line into a good one—capable of giving the support necessary to Palm Springs' fast, light backfield. When Hale returned to the squad he fortified the gaping weakness in the center of the line. His appearance virtually solved the Redskins' fumbleitis problem—one largely due to poor ball handling by an inexperienced pivot man.

IF COACH CLARE BALLAGH isn't named as "Coach of the Year" in the RCL, it'll be the greatest crime since the passage of the 18th amendment.

Ballagh, ably supported by his assistants Scott and Thompson and Paul Summers, moulded a light, inexperienced group of individuals lacking depth into an effective team. Defense played perhaps the most important role for the Indians in the winning 1950 season as league opponents were limited to an average of slightly more than eight points per game. Thirteen was the largest score tallied against the locals in RCL play.

Always lacking depth in the lineup, Ballagh's pregame advice to his team throughout the season proved to be winning words—"Play with everything you have and when you get too tired to play your best, we'll put someone else in."

A crowd of about 300 in Orange Show stadium, San Bernardino, watched Palm Springs advance to the semi-finals of the CIF southern section, southern group. The Crusaders are Arrow-head league champs.

Charlie and Johnny Black led the Indian running attack as Palm Springs tallied a dozen first downs on the ground to St. Bernardine's one. In the second half, Coach Clare Ballagh used a majority of reserves.

SUBSTITUTES DOMINATED the line and boys like Bob Hall, Barry DeVorzon, Clarence Fields, James Bolton, and Gary Sanders who have done little or no ball carrying in league games, did about as much of the ball packing as the regular backfield.

Deartis Davis started the ball rolling for the Indians on the third scrimmage play of the game. He scampered 52 yards around right end to a touchdown only to find that one of his teammates was offside, and the play was called back. But Charlie Black went 15 yards around the right side and spun away from a tackler on the one for a touchdown that did count a few minutes later. Oscar Prieto's conversion attempt was wide.

DAVIS TRIED AGAIN near the end of the quarter, this time 22 yards with the aid of a beautiful block by Charlie Black. It was no use. Again an offside penalty blocked the play. As the second quarter began, Johnny Black passed to Bill Spencer for 17 yards and two short runs by Charlie Black carried it to the Crusader one. Davis then plunged over for his first legal score. Prieto again missed the conversion.

The most unique play of the game came about midway through the second period. Joe Karr of St. Bernardine shot a short pass which Johnny Black intercepted on the Crusader 35. Johnny ran to the 25 where he lateraled the ball to Bill Spencer. Spencer carried it to the 14 and lateraled to James Bolton who fumbled. St. Bernardine recovered to regain possession of the ball on the ten.

TO TOP it all off, the play was called back due to a penalty. The Indians were ahead to stay, scoring almost at will through the Crusader forward wall.

As the final period began the Indians were deep in their territory with their backs to the wall. Spencer punted out to the Palm Springs 23. A penalty and an eight-yard pass from Karr to Jim Neal resulted in the lone Crusader score.

William Jones, supervisor, admitted to the board Monday that he had had an accident in a county car.

The other driver was a lady, he said. She admitted it was her fault. In fact, he wasn't even in the car. It was parked. Damages were slight, $50, which the woman's insurance company paid, Jones said.

West Defeats East 46-18 In RCL Gridiron Carnival

Playing without Palm Springs and Elsinore, the West defeated the East in the first annual football carnival at Indio's Date Bowl last Wednesday night.

Attendance at the pigskin parade wasn't up to expectations, but in all other ways the event was a success. Some sensational seniors put on a great show for the Date Bowl audience in climactic prep careers on the football field. Notable among these were John Jones of Perris, Billy Thomason of San Jacinto and Webb Ross of Hemet.

OUTSTANDING LINE play was one of the carnival features, but some pass-snatching ends were the big hits. San Jacinto's Tip Brittain and Roger Mages, Perris' Don Weischedel and Hemet's Leo Holmes caught the fancy of the crowd by the superb play. For the first time this year, presters let their hair down and had fun. The results were sharp offensive football, keyed by a San Jacinto team which scored three times against Banning and was knocking at the goal line again when the period against Banning ended.

THE CARNIVAL is expected to move into the western end of the county next year, possibly at the Hemet fairgrounds.

INDIANS IN TITLE GAME

Garden Grove club will be a top-heavy favorite to knock the Indians out of CIF ranks Friday. The Bulldogs won a 14-0 scrap over Valencia in early season. In league play, Garden Grove routed Valencia, 44 to 6.

Garden Grove last participated in a CIF playoff in 1945 when it won its league title and was knocked off by Downey in a first-round ruff, 13 to 6.

THE WINNER of tonight's fracas will play again on Dec. 2 in semi-final action. Brawley, which drew an opening round bye, swings in against San Dieguito, victor over Escondido.

Polo Grounds In Good Shape For Leaguers

"Polo Grounds ball park will be in perfect condition for the White Sox in February and the Seattle Rainiers the following month," said city recreation director Howard Haddock this week.

"The diamond has been completely re-seeded and is coming up beautifully. Trouble with the water pipes delayed the seeding operation for about a month but the ball players will still have a green, table top smooth carpet to practice on."

Chisox Battery Training to bring Fifty to Village

Jere Weber of Palm Springs Pueblo and Frank C. Lane, general manager of the Chicago White Sox, American League team, completed arrangements this week whereby approximately 50 team members, trainers, coaches, sports writers and stockholders will be in the Village from early in February to March 1.

The White Sox battery will train here in February and there will be 30 pitchers and catchers in the group coming here to condition at the Polo Grounds.

With them will be Paul Richards, new Chisox manager who was here with Seattle Rainiers last year. Four coaches and trainers, four sports writers, plus others interested in the Sox will be here, too.

The Sox move out on February 28 when the Seattle Rainiers move in to go into their annual spring training grind.

Tenpin Topics

By LEONA ROTH

It was "turkey shootin'" Monday night at the Palm Springs Bowling Alleys and when the boys got through blasting the mallets there was hardly a pin (feather) left to be swept off the alleys and lots of grumbling was heard about having to eat hamburger again this year. But not so for pin-punisher Alex Reid who mixed the pins unmercifully, and racked up a high game of 247 and walked off with a nice fat Gobbler.

Al Stein's little boy Alex also won high series but due to the rules (one to a man) he had to bow out to Harlan Hoffman when he added a feather (turkey) to his cap by clicking for high game series with 601. H. Hoffman is that torrid bowler that treks down from Banning each Monday and lends his weight to the Western Tobacco and Candy team. Crying towels were passed out to the rest of the gang.

FIRST KEGGLER to cop a nice shining bowling pin from the management for the year is Don Neilson with a lofty game of 250. Don is the handsome husband of the "pin splashing

Indio Basketball Team Looms as Loop's Strongest

When city league basketball play gets under way Monday night, Dec. 11, Indio will be tabbed as the team to beat in the race.

Date city boosters decided some weeks ago that there wasn't sufficient material in Indio to have a league of their own and the cream of the remaining players formed a single team and joined the Palm Springs city league.

Pegged as star of the Indio quintet is Paul Rundell, a center who played varsity at San Diego State college two years ago. Rundell is now hoop coach at Coachella high. It's said there's another former Aztec cageman on the squad, too.

female on Wednesday nights mixed doubles, called Madeline.

HATHAWAY'S LATHERS have been roosting on top of the head this year with 18 games won and total pins of 14891 but the "water boys" from Paddock Pools are "splashing" their way up the ladder. R. Keller narrowed it down when he racked up a powerful series of 538 for Paddock and led a scoring spurge with 202—196 high games. Paddock nicked Plaza Motors for 3 games and a 69 total pin gain on Monday.

Even "Santa" will be doin' it!

Fans who turned out for the first game of the city league basketball tournament Monday night had little to cheer about. Nobody played. The team will stay in the league, however and play all its remaining games.

however and play all its remaining games.

Last night two more first round games were played at high school gym, giving all six squads a chance at action in the first week of tournament play. Royal Aces met Village Market in the 7:30 contest and Indio met Agua Caliente Indians in the 9 p.m. finale.

With one of the remaining three teams drawing a bye, a semi-final game will be played Monday night.

Chest X-ray Serves 1150 In Stay Here

County Mobile
Unit Visited by Many in 3 Days

A total of 1150 persons in the Village were X-rayed this week during the three-day stay of the Christmas Seal chest X-ray unit. 403 of the total were at Palm Springs high school.

Free X-rays were taken at the school of elementary students whose tuberculin tests were positive and of high school students, with special emphasis upon freshmen and senior grade pupils and all school employees.

From Monday evening through Wednesday afternoon the huge white unit operated on Palm Canyon drive near the Plaza Theatre. Here 747 more Villagers took advantage of the free service.

Yesterday the unit moved to a new place where it operated all day and today it is in Corona. In February the X-ray machine goes to the desert area, covering Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs and Indio during the date festival.

fast honoring all hotel association members.

Cognizance was taken of the current nationwide observance of Hotel Week, and the general salute to the hospitality industry.

Participation as workers in the Community Chest drive was launched following talks by Vice President John Miller, Treasurer Ed Zirinsky, and by visiting Chest publicist Melba Bennett.

UNANIMOUS DECISION was reached to call upon the city government to prevent construction and other noise nuisances objectionable to visitors before 8 a.m. between October and June.

With the introduction of Frank Ewing, one-time operator of a travel bureau here but now convention manager of the Chamber, the matter was applied to the attack upon the reservation bureau which the Chamber launched October 15.

Ewing outlined the plan of operation, pointing out that it was the intention to provide a service to visitors when they arrive here as well as in advance of arrival. Ewing emphasized the fact that Los Angeles stores maintaining branches here are for the first time making "proportionate" contributions to the local Chamber because of its present program of promotion.

BEFORE THIS POINT was disposed of, questioning by President Weber brought from Ewing the admission that such "foreign" contributions were in no way contingent upon the Chamber's operation of the reservation bureau.

The evening's most damaging attack upon the Chamber came when courtesy of the floor was extended to non association member Dr. Northey DuMaurier, a travel bureau operator, who read aloud a letter addressed to Manager William Dunkerley and the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

THE DOCUMENT contained allegations of crippling interferences imposed on DuMaurier through political pressure generated to prevent DuMaurier from opening a travel bureau here under a city license; charges of discrimination and implied threats against his business if he persisted in opening it here, and assertions that instead of a cooperative welcome from the Chamber to a new business destined to aid the community, he received open antagonism and discouragement from the Chamber manager.

Ewing and DuMaurier reached the polite liar-calling stage over the issue of the nature of DuMaurier's application for Chamber membership.

EWING, explaining that Dunkerley was out of town, stipulated finally that he could not speak from personal knowledge of the alleged incidents.

Before the argument could proceed further, President Weber courteously advised both men to air the details of the difficulties before a more appropriate forum.

Gist of the arguments opposing the Chamber's reservation bureau activity were as follows:

1—The Chamber has no right to enter into the conduct of a private business, in competition with established firms whose livelihood is dependent upon a business, especially since the Chamber is financed in some of its operations by tax monies collected from all local firms and individuals.

2—The Chamber, expending public money in advertising has no right to channel the beneficial results of that advertising through its own office and to distribute the financial benefits to Chamber members exclusively.

3—The Chamber is using the distribution of tourist traffic in its reservation bureau as a financial club to force hotelmen into membership.

ANOTHER HOTEL Association director, Maynard G. Mead, was a forceful and heated advocate on this point. He asserted that when he conferred with Chamber Manager Dunkerley, upon finding that his bill for Chamber dues was higher than he could afford, Dunkerley told him it was too bad he felt that way, because with opening of the reservation bureau at the Chamber it could only mean a loss of revenue to Mead.

LITHUANIAN DANCERS. Lucille Zalkis, front center, is the leader of the Lithuanian folk dancing group from Los Angeles which will participate in the Mexican Fiesta to be held in the Plaza Dec. 10. The group, which will lend a true international flavor to the Fiesta, is shown wearing beautiful hand made national costumes. Story on page one.

Support of Mead's words came from association member Bob Coates, who described himself as "a little guy operating a little hotel."

Association member Walter Freund suggested that fear of inequities in operation of the reservation bureau was the real problem. To counteract this, he suggested that the Chamber publish and submit periodically to all hotelmen, a list of reservation requests and their disposition.

SOL MENASSE, a member, revealing that his establishment has been filled to capacity for over a month, pleaded for a fair trial of the Chamber's new bureau.

Again recognized by the chair, Coates arose and asked Menasse pointedly whether a financial interest in his hotel, the Warm Sands Villa, by Chief of Police August Kettmann, might have something to do with the fact that it appeared to be the only establishment in Palm Springs enjoying maximum business.

J. R. McQuilkin, manager of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, who with two comely Los Angeles travel agents attended as guests of Chamber President Keith Herbert, talked at some length upon the success operation of a bureau similar to the local Chamber's.

THE VISITOR made it clear, however, in answer to questions, that in Las Vegas the Chamber entered the reservation picture in what hitherto had been a vacuum.

Hence the Nevada organization did not have to consider the possibility of damaging a local business firm when it entered into the business.

Aside from this most interesting speaker, the meeting will observe the beginning of the Chanukah holiday which is celebrated for eight days beginning Sunday, December 3.

Mrs. Leo Baker, president, urges members and friends to attend and enjoy a particularly interesting afternoon.

Springs and insure a pleasant stay. Otherwise we can find ourselves with vacant units even though there are people who would desire them.

There is one other important group to which this program is directed—and that is Travel Agents throughout the United States. It is generally admitted that during the past few years Palm Springs has not enjoyed the cooperation of Travel Agents throughout the country.

The Chamber of Commerce has now offered to these agencies the opportunity to place their guests in Palm Springs with a minimum of effort and expense—and still secure their full commission. The response to date from widespread travel agencies has been virtually unanimous in support of this program; they have accepted it and welcome it. It is confidently predicted that as a result of this program Palm Springs as a whole will enjoy considerably increased support from Travel Agents—at long last.

ONE SPECIFIC EXAMPLE is quoted: One of the largest and a very reputable travel agency in Los Angeles had endeavored to personal visit to locate accommodations for six clients in Palm Springs. This agent spent six hours personally calling at hotels and apartments but was unable to locate desired accommodations. Subsequently the travel agent called upon the chamber for assistance and within an hour the chamber had secured the necessary and desired accommodations. This agent was unstinting in praise of the chamber's service. This is not an isolated example.

At this point we wish to point out the following:

1. There is no intent nor desire to interfere in any way with established relationships between guest and hotel; between guest and travel agent; or between guest and local travel agent, reservation bureau or rental service.

2. Advertising of the Chamber has stressed that potential visitors should consult their travel agent or the Chamber.

IN DIRECT ANSWER to any suggestion or implication of "discrimination," we submit the following facts:

1. On October 12th a committee of 12 hotel and apartment operators — George Thompson, Lloyd Lemon, Stanley Rosin, Lou Moore, R. F. Outcalt, Jack Gosham, Jane Porter, Charles Snyder, Frank Rusalem, Ruby Whidden, S. P. Manasse, and Keith Herbert, President, met and fully reviewed the program to be inaugurated. This committee unanimously endorsed and supported the program.

2. On November 15th the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors met and reviewed actual operation of the service for the past 30 days. The Chamber was complimented upon the impartiality shown in placing of reservations as evidenced by the following:

UP TO THAT DATE some 79 reservations had been placed through the Chamber. These 79 reservations were distributed among 68 hotels and apartments.

This entire program is directed toward bringing visitors to Palm Springs, facilitating that visitor or those visitors in finding necessary accommodations, and in insuring that they are properly serviced. It is not established as a service to hotels and apartments or any particular group in Palm Springs. The results and achievements of this service will benefit the entire community—that is the objective of the Chamber. It will eventually benefit every business in Palm Springs, hotels, retail merchants, travel agencies and reservation bureaus, restaurants and all others.

The Chamber is interested in seeing that not one single potential visitor to Palm Springs fails to become a guest. It is toward the undoubtedly small percentage of eventual visitors who would otherwise not be guests in Palm Springs that this service is directed.

By LYTLE HULL

HOW OFTEN have Beatrice Fairfax and other matrimonial experts warned the young not to "take marriage for granted," but to consider it a "job" like everything else; not to think that once "tied" they can forget the attentions they formerly lavished upon each other?

In reality these attentions—small and large alike—are far more essential after marriage than before. If the "boy friend" was in the habit of sending red roses, what an anticlimax when—as husband—he picks a few dandelions, or just forgets the whole thing. If one's wife never saw him unshaved—what an effort to digest the morning egg while contemplating a chinful of dismal whiskers. And—on the distasteful side—a messy coiffure and a sloppy wrapper scarcely enhance a husband's once glorified picture of "the girl of his dreams." Little things maybe—but how they do count!

Far more essential however to conjugal bliss, and much less discussed, is the little matter of "bickering." When most youngsters are engaged they—at least pretend to—respect each other's idiosyncrasies and don't start an argument every time one or the other expresses an idea. If they do so, the engagement seldom culminates in matrimony. Then why do they think they can quibble and quarrel over anything and everything and still retain the same feeling for one another? If it couldn't be done before—it can't be done after!

A smart wife gives ear to the most insane fancies of her husband—and then gently talks him out of them. A clever husband never ridicules his wife's most flighty conceptions. If he can't convince her quietly, he will change the subject—pretend he saw a mouse or something.

No, you can even forget the red roses or wear a spotted wrapper, but you must sacrifice the pleasure of wrangling if you hope to stick together "till death do us part."

C. C. Man Fined After DWI and Injuring Officer

Harry McClure, 31, charged with drunk driving, pleaded guilty when arraigned before Judge Eugene Theriault at city court yesterday morning and was fined $100 and lost his drivers license for 90 days.

McClure was cited Nov. 19 at 2 o'clock in the morning after he accidentally struck police officer John Hollinger as the latter was making a routine sobriety test beside another motorist's car. The incident took place on highway 111 one third mile west of Barona road.

Police estimated that McClure approached the stopped motorist and police patrol car, which were pulled to the right of the pavement, at about 70 miles per hour, despite blinking red patrol car lights.

Hollinger waved a flashlight at the onrushing car and started moving to the front of the vehicle which he had been investigating. Suddenly McClure jammed on his brakes, according to police, and skidded sideways for 70 feet before hitting the rear fender of Harry Bernhard's car and continuing on to strike Hollinger and knock him 15 feet in front of Bernhard's vehicle.

McClure's car finally came to a halt 10 feet in front of Bernhard's, the one being checked by the officer.

Hollinger sustained an injured leg and has been under treatment since the accident. He has not been confined to a hospital

I much prefer an aria on wax To seeing some stout dame un-lax. To me, a solo reeks Believed from pudgy cheeks. Oh, that I were a librettist I'd ban the corpulent cornetist. The flautist flutist, The obese oboist.

I'd thrill to Whiteman, Paul If he weren't wide as tall. My Crosby devotion's not so staunch Now he's grown a double paunch. Only virtue about Sinatra, Frank— I saw him once—he was lank. (Even then he stank.) My idea of a sleek filly Is the soprano—Pons, Lily.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
By Joyce Lee
A Short Story

THIS WAS the end. Martha Lake couldn't stand any more. She had come to teach Slocum Prairie School because there was a teacher beside the school, a house with four rooms, completely furnished. The teacherage stood for peace, quiet, time to write the history text book she had dreamed of.

Some birthday! She would resign, slip away this week end, forget the teacherage with its pine floors, rag rugs, gingham curtains, blue dishes and quiet.

Ignacio Laswadowski, Jorgen Jorgenson, Gus Schultz and Mickey O'Brien were too much for her. The three big girls, Katie Van Matre, Madeline Brownstetter and Carla Jorgenson liked to bicker, brag and call names. Madeline would say: "I will be a nurse and give orders to generals on battlefields."

"Nurses TAKE orders," Katie would say. "You are bragging again."

"Bragging again," Carla would say. "I have something to brag about," Madeline would answer. "And so have I!" Carla would say. "My mother is the best cook in Slocum Prairie. She won all the prizes at the county fair."

"For Norwegian lutefish, lefse and waffles!" Madeline invariably answered.

"For pie and cake, too!" Carla would roar and burst into tears.

It would take a woman with iron nerves to cope with the 15 youngsters here. Even the first graders: Sonia Jorgenson, Kathleen O'Brien, Mattie and Lucy Van Matre, Irving Laswadowski, Phillip Schultz—all the students—bickered. Sometimes it was the size of their hybrid corn, or again it was crop. Fifteen children, against 45, sounded like an maid's paradise, which it hadn't been.

San Diego Artist Praises Cathedral City Art Center

"The Coachella Valley Desert Art Center has the right idea when it organizes its services for artists under both the art and business guidance of the community," said Arthur W. Mitchell, noted San Diego landscape painter and instructor in art at the San Diego Junior College. He made this remark as he became a member of the Center at its gallery headquarters in Cathedral City. "I remember when Laguna started its little gallery in an old barn, and you have much more to start than they have," he continued. "They have maintained a policy of selecting patrons of art to manage the business end of their organization while the artists have provided volunteer service, fine quality painting and a constant constructive attitude," he said.

MR. MITCHELL was one of the founders of the San Diego Art Guild and the La Jolla Art Association. He says that he has been a frequent visitor to the desert since he first came as a farmer to Imperial in 1904. He also drove a stage coach in Nevada but finally settled in San Diego in 1913 and began his career as a painter with Maurice Braun, Hungarian painter of note. Several years were also spent in the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, the oldest and best school of art in the United States. Following a trip to Europe on a Cresson Scholarship, Alfred Mitchell returned to San Diego and married his childhood sweetheart. Like many other California painters he comes each year to the desert to paint its changing scenes. He says he has often wondered why no desert art center had been organized, as it can fill so many needs. He urges the local group to be content with a gradual growth over a period of years to keep its overhead low and not expect phenomenal results. The San Diego belongs to the conservative, or traditional, school of painting and says he is

Hottest Argument Of Year Staged By Supervisors

Charges by Supervisor William Jones Monday that Chairman Floyd Gilmore had used political pressure to have a county employee discharged because the latter had opposed Gilmore in the recent election, touched off the hottest verbal battle of the year before supervisors Monday.

Gilmore denied the charges heatedly. Jones said he heard Acting County Welfare Director Floyd Brown admit Gilmore had put pressure on him to fire William W. Evans, a public assistance worker in the county welfare department office in Hemet.

JONES SAID Brown admitted he was afraid Gilmore would take action to keep Brown from being appointed permanent director.

The other supervisors at the meeting—Ed Hill and Collis Mayflower—finally restored peace with a proposal that Brown be instructed to make a report about the affair to the supervisors next week. Connoisseurs of fights in the chambers of the supervisors said Monday's was perhaps the best of the year—and there have been plenty of good ones.

JONES INSISTED that he was going to call Brown into the meeting and Gilmore said that if he did, he would adjourn the meeting and Jones could talk to Brown by himself.

"I'm running this board," Gilmore said. Brown later said that he was instructed by three supervisors that it would be advisable to discharge Evans because of "political activity."

On Oct. 23, ordinance company men in the vicinity of Waegwan found with mine detectors 26 buried enemy guns.

Slave Labor Behind Iron Curtain Told

John Morley Gives
Uncensored Reports
To Local Audiences

"A War Correspondent's Uncensored Report on the Asia Crisis" was the subject discussed by John Morley in the first of four Forums sponsored this season by Palm Springs Evening high school. Morley spoke at Frances Stevens school auditorium Wednesday night.

Earlier in the day he addressed the Rotary club at a Desert Inn luncheon.

MORLEY DISCUSSED what he called "the deplorable slave conditions behind the iron curtain" in Asia as he saw them recently. He told of the "bungling" of U. S. foreign policy in Korea and other places and of the "triumph" of the Marshall Plan in others.

Morley also told of "the armed treachery of communism" around the world. He was arrested by Soviet agents recently while riding the Airliner-Orient express, the same train and near the same area, on which the murdered body of U. S. diplomatic attache, Captain Eugene Karpe, was found last fall.

MORLEY HAD TRAVELED extensively throughout the world. He has visited with many world leaders including General Douglas MacArthur, Chiang Kai-Shek, Winston Churchill, Pope Pius XII, England's King George VI and many U. S. military and diplomatic officials around the world.

CV Marksmen In Trophy Shoot

Last Sunday, Nov. 25th, the members of the C. V. Pistol and Rifle Club met on the local rifle range to fire for the Mills Liquor store trophy.

This is a yearly event with the winner holding the trophy for a year. If he can win three years in succession he keeps the trophy permanently.

John Carlson turned in the high score for this match 399 out of a possible 400 winning for the second time. Warren James had high score on the first stage with a 200 possible against Carlson's 199, but Carlson came back on the 100 yard stage with a 200 possible while James dropped three points making James end up with 397. Mrs. Alene Withrow of Idaho shot 395 and took third place.

The 452d Light Bomb Wing, first Air Force reserve unit called to active duty as a unit, is now flying over Korea.

LAFF OF THE WEEK

"I Don't Have To Be Smart — I'm Cute!"

County Chamber Secretary Quits

R. M. C. Fullenwider will hereafter devote his entire time to promoting the Riverside County Fair and Date Festival at the Indio and the Orange County Fair.

Supervisors voted to take the duties of secretary-manager of the County Chamber of Commerce away from him.

Fullenwider himself proposed the change.

"My real interest is in the fair. This way the supervisors can hire a man later who will give his full time to the County chamber of commerce," he said. The County Fair has thrived under Fullenwider — and the County Chamber of Commerce has been something of a stepchild. Fullenwider will split his time between Riverside County's fair and Orange County's fair. (Orange County hired him this year.)

Each County will pay him $3,800 a year.

First Seals Returns Prove Encouraging

First returns from the sale of Christmas Seals in Palm Springs are encouraging according to Dr. Bon O. Adams, local chairman.

Dr. Adams said that $3,453.72 has reached county headquarters from all parts of the county so far.

Aid for Children In County Almost Doubles in Year

In the last month of operation of the county welfare department under the old state law—September, 1949—cost to the county in aid to needy children was $51,000. In September, this year, under the new state liberalized program of aid to needy children, the county paid $87,000.

County Welfare Director Floyd Brown released the figures this week.

BROWN SAID that it was not that the department was giving each child more money. Actually, it was giving most of them less. But many more children are getting aid under the new program. In September, 1949, the department gave aid to 1172 children in the County. In September, 1950, the department gave aid to 2076 children.

STATE LEGISLATURE did all this with one sentence in an act amending the established program. The sentence: "As used in this chapter, 'needy child' means a needy person under the age of 18 years who has been deprived of parental support or care by reason of the death, continued absence from the home, or physical or mental incapacity of a parent."

Miss Cochran Heads Special Aviation Board

Jacqueline Cochran of Indio was named Wednesday to head a special board of civilian women consultants to Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff.

The new group has been created to study problems involving women in the Air Force.

Miss Cochran is the wife of aircraft builder Floyd Odlum and holds several national and international flying records. She headed women Air Force service pilots in World War II.

Other members of the board are Mrs. Gardner (Fleur) Cowles of the Cowles Publications and Mrs. Millicent C. McIntosh, dean of Barnard College.

Mrs. Cowles is editor-in-chief of Flair magazine and associate editor of Look and Quick magazines. Mrs. McIntosh has been an educator since 1922.

Mrs. Brott Reports Diamond Ring Loss

Mrs. Harry Brott reported loss of a diamond wedding ring to police this week.

She lost the ring, a large one set in platinum, in the Plaza Monday evening, she said. Finders who aren't keepers may locate Mrs. Brott at Desert Drug.

Someone told them that when we have Sun Time, (not the office variety) it is going to be retroactive. . . . They are using up valuable reams of newsprint, the price of which recently went up $10 a ton, to figure what they have coming in overtime. . . . All of the days they worked from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. . . . If Village time is retroactive.

You can't say, let's see what was that I heard and listen to it again. . . . In a newspaper, you can pick it up anytime and find what you want. . . . ## St. Theresa's to Stage Dinner as School Benefit

Plans were progressing today for a big dinner party coupled with the award of an automobile and a merry evening at Vic Sudaha's Palm House on the evening of December 11.

The event, a benefit for St. Theresa's Parochial school, was announced this week and on the committee arranging the affair are Judge E. E. Theriault, Milton Hicks and Barney Hinkle.

At a meeting at St. Theresa's Parish house recently, plans for the event were prepared. Larry Sitter and Bob Rech were appointed in charge of ticket sales and Warren Slaughter, assistant city attorney, was placed on the publicity committee. Sudaha has donated the Palm House and its service for the evening and the entire proceeds will go toward the benefit.
